LONDON, May 4.—The Polish war office officially announces the destruction of the Bolshevik Twelfth army, according to a Warsaw despatch received here today. The Twelfth Russian army was one of the units opposing the Poles in their swift advance northward through Ukrainia. The advance is continuing.

The defeat of the Bolshevist forces and the capture of Kiev by the Poles has been confirmed by the Russians themselves, the despatch added.

A Moscow proclamation has been received in Warsaw, bearing the signatures of both Lenine and Trotzky. It stated the red troops were withdrawn to prevent bloodshed.

This strategy, according to the despatch, consisted of drawing the Poles onward into the steppes country where the Polish armies are to be destroyed.

The despatch confirms the evacuation of Kiev.

The Bolshevist forces are falling back towards Karkhov, according to a Daily News despatch. Kharkov is 42 miles southwest of Moscow.

A Warsaw despatch to the Times today said that the Poles have captured 25,000 prisoners since the start of their offensive, in addition to 105 cannon and a quantity of other war material.

Record State Vote Being Cast

Johnson Is Favorite in Indiana

Great Numbers of Democrats Over California Are Casting Aside Old Alignments and Demand Republican Ballot

Four-Fifths of Registration in County Is Expected to Visit the Polls; Straight Ticket Is the Rule Everywhere

Oakland and Alameda county are turning out the heaviest primary votes in their history.

Since early this morning, when the polls were opened to find men and women in line, until past noon there has been little let-up in the press of citizenry at the booths and the prediction is made that close to 100,000 will express their choice for candidates.

At 10 o'clock this morning a 20 per cent vote had been cast and it was made evident that all records for primary election totals were to be broken. The figures, officials say, will compare with the last general totals of two years ago.

A survey of the polling places shows that almost no Democrats are voting. Of 600 votes cast in scattered precincts in East and West Oakland at noon there were but five Democratic ones. The fact is held indicative of the contest between Johnson and Hoover and of the interest in Californians in this race. The Democrats and those who have not stated party affiliations are evidently taking advantage of the ruling by Attorney General U. S. Webb and are calling for Republican ballots. As a result, in the count tonight, the Democratic column is to be almost negligible.

JOHNSON STRONGHOLDS CAST HEAVY VOTES

The same heavy vote that is being cast here is evident in San Francisco, Sacramento and Stockton, all strongholds of Johnson, while in Los Angeles, claimed by the Hoover committee, the vote is described as "the lightest in years." A 50 per cent vote is predicted in San Diego, while Long Beach appears to be the only southern city responding in numbers to the election opportunity.

J. Harry Zemansky, registrar of San Francisco, reported this noon that he looked for a total of 100,000 in his city, where 181,603 are registered. The vote is particularly heavy in the industrial section, Zemansky said, and there are indications that many Democrats are calling for Republican ballots.

"STRAIGHT" TICKETS RULING AT POLLS.

Precinct reports indicate that most of the voters are casting straight tickets and that the lesson that a scratched ballot defeats its own ends has been generally learned.

There are 430 precincts in Alameda county and the work of tabulating and counting the results is expected to extend over into the morning. Soon after the polls close the first complete returns will be available from those small outlying precincts where but few votes are counted. Officials in the booths will work until a late hour in the larger city precincts as every one of the twenty-six delegates on the Republican and twenty-seven on the Democratic tickets must be counted.

As there are no Democratic candidates in the field and as the registration figures show 75 per cent Republican sentiment, the issue is a clear cut Republican one, the Johnson-Hoover contest. Conservative Johnson forces are claiming the election by 60,000 votes. The Hoover managers make a claim that they will win, but set no figures. They are banking on the southern part of the state off-setting any majority Johnson will get in Central California.

There are many who predict that the total Republican vote in the state will reach 500,000. The total registration in California was 1,111,192 which is 400,000 more than ever before.

The only excitement in the Democratic ticket and the only opportunity for speculation in the Bourbon camp lies in the fact that there are twenty-six delegates to be chosen on that ticket and twenty-seven names presented. It will mean that one man is to be dropped and the question is, who is to be the low man? Those who vote for more than 26 will cost ballots which will be invalidated by the board. The "extra" man is Henry H. Childers of Los Angeles who has his name put on the ballot by petition.

The polls will close at 7 o'clock this evening.

DEMOCRATS MIX IN FIGHT AT BERKELEY

In Berkeley it was reported that in nine precincts only four Democratic votes had been cast in all, up to noon, while a total of nearly 1000 votes had been recorded at that time. County Clerk George E. Gross declared it was evident that nearly all Democrats in Berkeley and a large proportion of those in other sections were voting the Republican ticket in order to mix in the Johnson-Hoover contest.

To indicate the real proportion of Democratic and Republican votes, the registration figures show that 4996 Democrats and 16,322 Republicans registered from Berkeley, or a little less than four to one, while the proportion as cast this morning is about 250 to 1.

Demands for additional Republican ballots arrived thick and fast and Gross was kept busy despatching supplies.

In one precinct in North Oakland the election officers found the name of Hoover written all over the tent, the floor and the tables.

Primary Election Polls to Close Tonight at 7

Polls for the presidential primary opened at 6 o'clock this morning.

They will close at 7 o'clock tonight.

There are 430 voting precincts in the county.

Every registered voter, no matter what party he declared for, or if he stated no affiliations, may secure a Republican ballot and vote in the Johnson-Hoover contest.

To vote for the preferred candidate all that is necessary is to stamp a cross in the square to the right of the list of his delegates. This is a vote for each of the delegates to the national convention and a complete expression of choice for the candidate.

On the Democratic ticket vote for twenty-six of the twenty-seven delegates listed. To vote for twenty-seven is to make the ballot invalid.

General Wood Wins Maryland By 7841 Votes

Army Man Gets 116 Delegates of State's 129 by Primary Decision

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

BALTIMORE, May 4.—Major-General Leonard Wood defeated Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California, in an unusually light vote in the primaries for Maryland's preference for the Republican nomination for President by a majority of 7841, according to practically complete returns today. The few missing precincts are scattered and are not expected materially to alter the results.

The vote was: Wood, 15,900; Johnson, 8059.

General Wood carried all four legislative districts in Baltimore and all but two of the twenty-three counties—Alleghany, in the mining district and Washington. Johnson's majority in Allegany was 801 and in Washington fifty. According to the returns, General Wood will have 116 of the 129 delegates to the state convention, which will name sixteen delegates to the national convention. These will be instructed in accordance with the state election laws to vote as a unit for Wood as long as in their "conscientious judgment" he has a reasonable chance of winning the nomination.

United States Senator John Walter Smith, Democrat, was unopposed for renomination. His Republican opponent is Ovington E. Weller of Baltimore county.

MODESTO, Cal., May 4.—Voting in Modesto was very light. It is not expected that more than a 40 per cent vote will be cast in Stanislaus county. Odds in Hoosier State Primary Indicative of Californian's Strength; Wood Is Only Real Opponent, Now Belief

Indianapolis Organ of Army Candidate Concedes That the Western Senator Has an Excellent Chance to Win

BY UNITED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 4.—Reports filtering in from over the State this afternoon indicate that Senator Hiram Johnson is leading his three Republican opponents in the presidential balloting of the Indiana primary.

At Terre Haute, Lowden was reported to be running ahead of the field, while Johnson led a landslide at Evansville.

The rural vote was not very heavy, according to the reports.

By HILLIARD D. GARRITSON,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 4.—Odds strongly favor Senator Hiram Johnson of California in the State-wide Indiana primaries today, if reports reaching the Senators headquarters may be taken on their face value. The Indianapolis News, consistent supporter of the candidacy of Major General Leonard Wood from the beginning, has conceded that "practically everybody is of the opinion that the State will be carried by Leonard Wood or Hiram Johnson."

Heretofore the News has not openly stated that Johnson might carry the State. Coupled with the fact that bets of 5 to 4 are being placed here in favor of Johnson, the Californian's adherents accept this as a concession of Johnson's victory.

In the Wood camp no admission of defeat was forthcoming. Governor Frank O. Lowden's lieutenants virtually conceded that Johnson would carry the State, but reports at the Illinois candidate's headquarters indicated that Lowden would make an "excellent showing."

Some of his supporters went so far as to state that Lowden stood a "good show of coming in second." The cards apparently were against Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio, the fourth presidential aspirant in the Indiana Republican list. His campaign was not so vigorous as that of his opponents, it was pointed out, and in some quarters it was held that a setback in Indiana, for the Ohioan—who failed to get a majority as favorite son candidate in his own State—would ring down the curtain on his candidacy.

WOMEN BARRED FROM PRIMARY

Ideal weather prevailed for the balloting today. Despite the fact, however, the Republican campaign was one of the hardest fought in Indiana's record. It was believed that the total vote would scarcely exceed half the total presidential vote—675,000 in 1916.

Women had no voice in today's balloting, although they will vote for President and Governor in the fall elections.

JOHNSON VICTORY IN SAN JOAQUIN SEEN

STOCKTON, May 4—Reports from precincts in the business district showed less than one third of the registered vote had been polled at 1:30 this afternoon. In one precinct with a registration of 153, not a Democratic ballot had been cast. Workers estimated Johnson was polling most of the votes.

SAN DIEGO EXPECTS 50 PER CENT VOTE

SAN DIEGO, May 4.—A light vote was cast in the presidential primary early today. The county registration is 33,000 and it was predicted by leaders of both Johnson and Hoover factions that not much over a 50 per cent vote would be cast. Cloudy skies marked the day.

HEAVY BALLOTING AT LONG BEACH ASSURED

LONG BEACH, May 4.—Early indications were that a heavy vote would be polled here, voters being lined up in front of polling places a few moments after they opened. The female registration outnumbered the male here, and indications are that the women will poll a particularly heavy vote.

DEMOCRATS VOTING BALLOT OF G. O. P.

RIVERSIDE, May 4.—Voting was light in Riverside county this morning, especially so far as women are concerned. Democrats are mostly calling for Republican ballots. In one precinct not a single Democratic vote had been polled up to 9 o'clock.

HALF REGISTRATION VOTE AT HANFORD

HANFORD, May 4.—A heavy vote was cast in the early hours today in King's county. So far Democratic voters almost unanimously call for Republican ballots. No active interest is shown in voting for choice between Hoover and Johnson. Estimated not over 50 per cent of the vote will be cast.

HOOVERITES FORECAST VICTORY AT PASADENA

PASADENA, May 4.—Unusually brisk balloting featured the early hours at the polls here today. Indications point to the fact that between 15 and 20 per cent of the registered vote was cast here in the first three hours the booths were open. Hoover club officials forecast a two to one victory locally.

AGUA PRIETA, Sonora, Mexico, May 4.—Torreon will be the first big objective of the rebel armies of the north when they launch their drive southward toward Mexico City, it was learned at liberti constitutionalist headquarters here.

REBELS GIVEN CONTROL OF ENORMOUS CUSTOMS.

JUAREZ, Mex., May 4.—The bloodless revolt of Juarez yesterday and capitulation of General Francisco Urbalejo and his Yaqui Indian troops at Casas Grandes virtually gave to the Sonora revolutionists control of the state of Chihuahua and paved the way for an unobstructed advance against Torreon, whence a campaign is to be launched against Mexico City.

With the capitulation of Juarez, the revolutionists were given control of the majority of customs houses through which hundreds of thousands of dollars in revenue is developed for the Mexican government.

Instead of each member foraging for himself in the publishing world, the brain children of the club will be united into one big family in a "literary bureau" just formed with Willard E. Hawkins, Denver writer, recently elected to membership in the California organization, as director. A meeting of the club fiction section has been called for next Saturday afternoon when each member will bring a poem or story to be "pooled" in the newly established bureau.

In the past the club has numbered such celebrities as Jack London, Joaquin Miller and others who have achieved fame in the world of letters.

Banker's Body Found Between Bales of Hay

Valuables and Money Untouched and Motive of Crime Shrouded in Mystery

LOS ANGELES, May 4.—The body of H. J. Robins, a wealthy retired banker, was found in the rear of a vacant house at Fifth and Oxford streets, in one of the better residence sections here today.

Robins had been beaten to death. A considerable sum of money, his watch and other valuables were undisturbed.

Robins, who had a family, lived in a handsome home not far from the scene of his death. He was missing all last night.

The indications were the murder occurred about 8:30 o'clock last evening. The police said they had nothing to indicate the motive or perpetrator of the crime.

Robins came here recently from Shelton, Neb.

The body had a rope around the neck, and police investigators said it had been dragged about thirty feet from a spot where there was some evidence of a struggle. It had been thrust between two bales of hay where it was discovered by workmen.

Investigation by the police developed that Robbins left about 7:30 last night. A few minutes later Mrs. Della Healy, a domestic employed at a home near the scene of the murder, heard some one cry out: "Oh, don't do that!" and saw two men struggling. She told the officers that she thought it was a couple of persons scuffling, and paid no attention to them.

Another neighbor spoke to Robbins about two minutes before he was seen in the scuffle. This was within 50 yards of the place where he was killed.

SHELTON, Neb., May 5.—H. J. Robbins was president of a bank here, where he had lived for thirty years, when he left for Los Angeles last May. He disposed of his banking interests, but retained large land holdings. He was estimated to be worth $500,000. He was 65 years old.

BIGAMIST FAINTS AS DESERT GRAVE GIVES UP REMAINS

Nina Lee Deloney's Body Is Taken From Sand Near Coyote Wells, Her Slayer Pointing the Way

HAMMER MARKS ARE SHOWN ON HEAD

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

EL CENTRO, Cal., May 4. — Nina Lee Deloney's grave has given up its dead.

Thus "Bluebeard" Harvey, murderer of five "wives," has linked proof to his chain of amazing crime and the most dramatic mysteries of criminology in America today stands bare.

"There is the grave," he said, pointing with fingers steady.

"She is there just as I said."

Harvey told the truth. Then he collapsed.

That was at 9:55 a. m. today, five miles west of Coyote Wells, a wild country of granite rocks and granite dust. Five minutes later the woman's face showed through the sand.

"I told the truth," said Harvey just before he collapsed and was carried back to his ambulance.

"I did it to help right my wrongs. I have told everything that I can just now."

BLUEBEARD DID NOT SEE BODY

Harvey did not climb the rugged mountain side, half way up which the body was found. He did not wish to see the corpse exhumed but he stood in the sandy wash just off the paved road, the only sign of civilization in that waste of land, and directed District Attorney Woolwine of Los Angeles and corps of searchers to the grave.

"Don't mar the face or the head," Woolwine cautioned as the deputy sheriffs shoveled away the sand. "I will want to show the hammer marks on the skull."

Bluebeard had confessed that he struck her a vicious blow with a hammer on the head.

The body lay huddled up in a shallow grave just as Bluebeard said it did. The hair was plainly distinguishable. There were no clothes anywhere near the grave.

A hundred people or more followed that strange caravan, so like a funeral, across the desert to grave.

MURDERER'S FACE BECOMES ASHEN

As the ambulance neared the spot where Harvey buried one of his five murdered wives three months ago the arch criminal gazed anxiously to right and left, searching sincerely for the landmarks of the grave, his face was white as death. Thick lensed glasses shielded his sunken eyes. Suddenly he waved his arms and shouted: "Stop!"

The caravan came to a halt. Harvey was helped to the ground and walked, assisted, about 300 yards off the road to the foot of the burial mountain. There it was where he directed the hunt.

BLUEBEARD OBJECTS TO PHOTOGRAPHERS

Harvey protested at all times against photographers taking his picture.

"Don't do that," he cried, "it makes me nervous. I might collapse. I don't want you to do that until the body is found."

District Attorney Woolwine and Sheriff Cline sent back to El Centro for an undertaker and the coroner. Immediately after the body is exhumed a coroner's inquest will be held, probably this afternoon.

There was no demonstration by the crowd that met Bluebeard at the depot here, or by those that followed him to the primitive bier of the woman he killed.

However, Harvey was at all times under heavy guard against any hostile move.

He was unmanacled and free to move about as he desired.

Harvey probably will be returned to Los Angeles tonight if his condition permits, where the final chapter of his enormous crime will be written.

Harvey has said he will plead to murder in the first degree with life sentence in prison.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

EL CENTRO, Cal., May 4.—Despite the early hour at which Bluebeard Watson's train arrived, the crowd was large and when the officers appeared on the Pullman platform there was a surge forward that made it necessary for the officers to push back the curious and form a ring around the prisoner to escort him to an ambulance.

When the party stopped at an uptown restaurant for breakfast a crowd blocking the street formed outside. Watson took a seat at a table and ate a substantial meal, although he appeared nervous and weak. Afterwards the officers were compelled to form a lane through which he could walk across the sidewalk to the ambulance.

Watson was palpably nervous when he saw the first crowd at the station, but after he learned that the people were curious instead of hostile he appeared more at ease.

TWO MORE WIVES ARE ADDED TO LIST

LOS ANGELES, May 4.—Two additional "wives" were brought to light today. Alka M. Hunt, a young nurse whose parents live in Santa Barbara, admitted to detectives that she married Harvey in Mexicali, Lower California, in October, 1919. She declares Harvey disappeared soon after the marriage, telling her he was going to Alaska on business.

Chief of Police W. J. Bailey of Wallace, Idaho, has notified the local authorities that Mrs. M. E. Goldensmith of Wallace declared she married Harvey under the name of Newton in Tacoma, in January last year. According to Bailey, Mrs. Goldensmith has in her possession more than 100 letters written by Harvey.

APPEAL FOR MERCY MADE BY BLUEBEARD

An appeal to the public for mercy and pity on the ground that he was crazy was issued here by Watson. The appeal was part of a long statement made public through his attorney, J. Morgan Marmaduke, who described it as his client's "unaided verbatim statement, written in longhand by himself."

It reviewed his acts, as stated in a confession he was said to have given officials here last week, and concluded with the query:

"Is it reasonable to think my acts are the work of a sane man, who was in a position to control himself or to understand the risk of exposure he ran?"

Watson surprised the officers by his strength when the time came for him to leave the hospital. He dressed himself with only a little assistance, walked from his cot to the waiting ambulance and from the ambulance through the railroad station and to the train, a distance of several hundred feet.

[illegible] he showed distress at the lack of cuff buttons, so the officers tied his suits together with string. He expressed resentment, too, at flash-light pictures taken of him by newspaper photographers.

"I don't think it is courteous," he said.

MURDERER, BUT TENDERHEARTED

In his statement Watson described himself as ordinarily "tenderhearted and easily moved to tears at the sight of sadness or distress and ever ready to help relieve such condition," and working as best he could to make the world better.

He declared, as a child, he had suffered great hardships and later was the victim of several accidents.

He said he had lived with three "wives" at the same time in San Francisco and risked detection by escorting them to restaurants and theaters and had done practically the same thing in other cities.

"I wonder," he continued, "if the public cannot see the logical position of my case and instead of clamor for revenge give my actions and mental condition just consideration.

"My every act shows I am to be pitied more than to be blamed for having developed into this strange and uncontrollable condition, but I am anything else but my natural self."

MARRIED SPOKANE WOMAN IN 1915

SPOKANE, Wash., May 4.—Walter Andrew Watson, alias Richard Hulrt, married Mrs. Margaret Burns of this city, October 6, 1915, at Colfax, Washington, under the name of Samuel Arthur Melrose, according to Mrs. Burns' sister, Mrs. Mary McCalmont, who recognized a photograph of Watson last week. According to Mrs. McCalmont, "Melrose" deserted Mrs. Burns some time later, taking with him many of her savings. Mrs. Burns now is in a state sanitarium at Medical Lake, Washington, near here.

"Melrose" was said to have operated an oil company at Calgary, Alberta, and Mrs. Burns met him, according to Mrs. McCalmont, through an advertisement for a stenographer.

MEDIUM CAN'T IDENTIFY SUICIDE

Efforts of the police to identify "the woman of mystery" who committed suicide in a rooming house at 741 Eighth street, failed today when Mrs. Anna Singleton, San Francisco spirit medium, declared the dead woman to have been a stranger to her.

The woman had planned well to take the secret of her name and residence with her when she sealed the doors of her room and turned on the gas. The body was found yesterday afternoon, and with it, as the only clew, a card which read, "Nat'l Spirchs," and the address [illegible].

Inquiry at the address showed that the house is vacant, but that Rev. Anna Singleton, who styles herself a minister of spiritualism and who conducts a church of spiritualism at 1771 Geary street, formerly lived there. Mrs. Singleton was given a description of the woman but said she could not aid in the identification.

It is believed the words "Nat'l Spirchs" may have been an abbreviation of "National Spiritualism," or of Nathanial Spirchs, although no one of that name has been known to have lived at the address. The dead woman was about 40 years old, of light complexion, weighed 125 pounds, and was 5 feet 6 inches tall. Her clothing indicated that she was a woman of taste and refinement. From it had been removed any mark that might have led to the discovery of her identity.

DETECTIVES TAKE AUTO AND BOOZE

RICHMOND, May 4.—Circumstances and the sharp eyes and nose of Federal sleuths caused the arrest of Louis Pera of Stege last night, on a charge of violating the Federal prohibition act.

U. C. SPEEDER REJECTS FARE JAIL AFFORDS

While devouring a plate of ham and eggs in his cell at the county jail this morning, Thomas G. Duffy, 22-year-old University of California freshman, who was sentenced to two days in the county jail yesterday by Judge Robert Edgar of Berkeley for speeding, said he would not appeal to Governor Stephens to have his sentence reduced.

While admitting that his bunk in the county jail is not the kind of a bed he is accustomed to, Duffy said he managed to sleep well last night. This morning he rejected the ordinary prison fare which was offered him and sent out for ham and eggs.

"A law requiring all motorists to pass an examination before given a license to drive," said Duffy, "rather than a law fixing a speed limit, is the thing most needed to prevent speeding. A person who really knows how to drive won't speed on crowded streets."

Iowa House Hunters Resort to Ingenuity

DES MOINES, Ia., May 4.—House-hunters of ingenuity have devised several interesting and successful methods of discovering houses and apartments for rent here.

One recently successful advertisement appeared under a large heading of one word, "Help!" It stated that "a sweet, year-old baby needs a home," and added, "of course, her parents must go with her." Another househunter who saw this advertisement told the baby's father about a cottage he had just inspected which was too small for himself. The father arrived there first and treated the place.

Most of the schemes are directed toward getting to the vacant place ahead of anyone else. Moving van drivers are stopped frequently to discover where their loads of furniture came from. Even divorce notices and death notices have been successfully followed up by a few househunters.

BOARD TO GUARD STUDENTS' HEALTH

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 4.—The health and sanitary safety of undergraduates of Yale University hereafter are to be guarded by a University Board of Health patterned after those of large cities. The board will make sanitary and health regulations for the control of the students, will undertake personal supervision of their health and help them to keep it at a maximum.

Dr. J. C. Greenway and a staff composed of medical assistants, a sanitary inspector and two surgeons will do the actual work under the direction of the new board of health. One of these surgeons will have the special care of students injured by participation in athletics.

All students who return to Yale University next fall will be expected to undergo a medical examination to enable them to enjoy the benefits of supervision by the University Health Board. No student will be eligible to compete in organized athletics until he has been found to be physically qualified, and notice to that effect has been given to the University Athletic Association. To obtain this certificate the undergraduate is required to comply with rules and regulations to be established by the new health board.

There will be strict sanitary supervision of the swimming pool, wrestling mats and other equipment in common use; also bacteriological examinations of water, milk and ice cream used in the dining hall. Communicable diseases which may affect students will be traced to their sources. Those suffering from physical defects will receive corrective training.

The expenses of the new department will be borne proportionately by the university and the Athletic Association.

To Keep the Face Fresh, Clear, Youthful

More important than the cosmetic care of the complexion is its physical care. To keep the face clean, fresh, youthful, there's nothing better than common mercolized wax. It absorbs the soiled or faded worn-out skin particles. Cosmetics simply add unwholesomeness to the complexion. That's the difference. By all means, acquire the mercolized wax habit. It's so easy to get an ounce of the wax at the druggists, apply at night like cold cream and wash it off next morning. There's no detention indoors, the old skin coming off so gradually no one suspects you are using anything. Within a week or two it's surprisingly youthful rose-like underskin is full in view—well, you won't want or need a make-up complexion after that. It must be apparent that this process means complete riddance of all cutaneous blemishes, like freckles, pimples, blotches and blackheads.—Advertisement.

PARIS SEEKING U. S. STUDENTS

PARIS May 4.—American students are to have an opportunity to obtain an education in the higher domains of knowledge under the direction of the faculties of the University of Paris.

Dr. Appell has just told the Associated Press correspondent that classrooms, laboratories and libraries of Paris are to be opened to young Americans. The city of Paris has given a site on the Boulevard St. Germain on which it is proposed to build an American institute where American students can be lodged, have their club and auditorium.

It is intended also to provide for American students opportunities for athletics and hygienic living such as they have enjoyed in America. Dr. Appell states that, owing to the heavy war burdens imposed upon France, she would be gratified if America would co-operate with her in a practical way in the creation of the proposed American institute.

Unbounded admiration for the spirit of the American nation was expressed by Dr. Appell in an interview granted to the correspondent at the Sorbonne. He declared that he desired intensely to promote opportunities for young Americans to pursue or perfect their studies in France.

JOHNSON IS FAVORED BY UTAH DELEGATES

PRICE, Utah, May 4.—Eight uninstructed Republican delegates to the national convention were chosen by the state convention which met here yesterday. Senator Reed Smoot was unanimously chosen to head the delegation, which consists of four delegates at large and four district delegates.

Although uninstructed observers here believe Utah's votes will be cast for Senator Hiram W. Johnson should the Californian show strength on the first roll call at Chicago.

JOHNSON VICTORY IN MONTANA SWEEPING

HELENA, Mont., May 4.—With official returns from last week's primary in twenty-eight Montana counties canvassed to date by the state officials, the totals were: Republican ticket: For President, Johnson, 10,153; Lowden, 3519; Wood, 3472; Hoover, 2444; Harding, 388.

DRY LEAGUE ENDORSES SEVEN CANDIDATES

WESTERVILLE, Ohio, May 4.—The Anti-Saloon League of America, through Dr. P. A. Baker, its general superintendent, placed its stamp of approval on seven presidential candidates. They are Hoover, Wood, Lowden, McAdoo, Hughes, Poindexter and Bryan.

Baker's statement says the prohibitionists of the country can safely support any of these men if nominated.

DEMOCRATS OF TEXAS SELECTING DELEGATES

DALLAS, Tex., May 9.—Meager additional returns from Saturday's Democratic precinct convention, held to elect delegates to county conventions today, who in turn will select delegates to the Texas Democratic convention on May 25, further emphasized the overwhelming victory of that element of the party favorable.

Today Democrats in more than 250 Texas counties will meet in county convention and select 1400 delegates to the state convention instructed to indorse the national administration and its policies.

JOHNSON ABANDONS NEW JERSEY RECOUNT

NEW YORK, May 4.—Supporters of Senator Hiram W. Johnson have abandoned their plans for a recount of votes case in the New Jersey presidential primary last Tuesday, it was announced by A. C. Joy, assistant eastern campaign manager, after a conference of Johnson leaders lasting more of the day.

"Lack of funds sufficient to cover the $50,000 asked to secure that state by State Supreme Court Justice Gummere won't permit us to go further that we have. We have less than one-third of that sum on hand now," Joy said.

Official figures in the New Jersey preferential primary contest with estimated returns from only one small district in one county, gave General Wood a margin of 1225 over Senator Johnson. The totals were: Wood 52,901, Johnson 51,676.

JOHNSON CONCLUDES DRIVE IN INDIANA

MARION, Ind., May 4.—With four huge mass meetings in Lafayette, Peru, Wabash and Marion, each of which smashed all local records for attendance at a political rally, the Indiana campaign of Senator Hiram Johnson was concluded in sensational fashion.

Incidentally this great quartet of meetings terminated temporarily the continuous nation-wide campaign which the Senator has been conducting during the last two months and a half.

The California candidate left Marion today for Washington, where he will spend a few days in rest before mapping out a final speech-making itinerary prior to the Republican national convention.

POLICE OUTWIT ARGENTINE REDS

BUENOS AIRES, May 4.—How the police of Argentina, before the date set for the "Communist Revolution" in combination with the recent general strike here, outwitted the Reds and prevented the uprising has just been revealed to The Associated Press correspondent.

Radical elements, mostly of foreign extraction, had planned the reign of terror for the same day on which the Kapp revolution in Germany began. If the ambitious plans of the Communists for murder and pillage had succeeded, the city would have been in control of a government of the Bolshevik soviet variety, backed by a Red army.

The police, who had learned of the plot long in advance, however, on the night before the revolution was to take place, descended upon the communist resorts, arrested nearly 200 men and women and confiscated several arsenals of bombs, arms and ammunition, together with large quantities of anarchistic literature.

The government, it developed, sent detectives among the communists, some of whom joined their organization and actually helped to manufacture the bombs with which the reign of terror was to be started. They also obtained secret circulars giving instructions as to how the revolution was to be accomplished.

The communists, it is alleged, formed part of a labor organization known as "The Fifth Congress of Anarchism" which some time ago separated from the Argentine Federation of Labor, and which is supposed to control a number of unions.

BRADY ACCUSED OF 'BLANKETING'

SAN FRANCISCO, May 4.—With the trial of Police Judge J. J. Sullivan continued to May 24 and a conference between Governor Stephens and Attorney General U. S. Webb arranged before that time, the system of administration of law and justice in San Francisco is to be brought sharply into question.

District Attorney Matthew Brady has addressed a letter to the governor denying allegations to the Bar Association of San Francisco that he was not prosecuting the alleged graft cases with due vigilance. He holds that he never refused aid, that he is ready for an investigation, and that he is determined to look after the affairs of his own office.

On the top of Brady's letter and coming with the full force of an open break and challenge is the announcement of John O'Gara, appointed by the Bar Association to aid in the prosecutions, that he will not serve. O'Gara says that his action is based on his belief that the district attorney's office is trying to secure acquittals instead of convictions, and openly charges that Brady is attempting to blanket all accusations against police judges and against Pete McDonough. Brady's reply to this is that the indictments against Judges Sullivan and Oppenheim and McDonough were secured through the activity of his office.

At the Hall of Justice it is believed that if the governor shows a disposition to investigate the affair many willing witnesses will appear.

In Mexico a seventy-mile gasoline motor railroad will be constructed to run from Monterey through a rich agricultural and mining district.

SCHOOL BUILDING PLANS APPROVED

Steps taken by the building program committee and the citizens' advisory bond committee in the acquisition of property for the approaching school building program were approved by the Board of Education last evening, following action recommended at a joint meeting of the two committees.

Under the plan approved by the board members, four additional sites will be purchased at once, the options having been secured and appraisals made, including property for the Melrose Heights, Dewey and Bay schools and a new Elmhurst junior high school.

The board also adopted further recommendations of the two committees asking approval of plans and estimates for the Fruitvale school auditorium, Manzanita school auditorium, and classroom additions to the Santa Fe school.

MY HEART and MY HUSBAND by ADELE GARRISON

The Quest Begins

"Don't be frightened, Mrs. Graham, we are going to stop in the middle of this block and walk the rest of the way. The house is in the next block."

Allen Drake's voice was solicitiously kind, but I resented the protectively patronizing air with which he spoke. It was the manner a man would adopt toward an old woman, an extremely young one or one totally inexperienced in worldly ways.

Surely, I said to myself hotly, I had not acquitted myself so badly in the piece of his work with which I had been associated during the war that he should make so little of my worldly wisdom now. At that time he had praised the work upon the important mysterious code which I had done so grudgingly, and that he had been compelled to admire because of the remarkable memory which some freak of nature supplemented by my little mother's training has given me.

But before I left Lillian's I had resolved to emulate the well-known oyster in the matter of expressing either opinions or emotions, so I confined my response to a laconic sentence.

"I am not frightened," I said indifferently.

"THIS WAY!"

"That's good," Mr. Drake was equally casual. He had already given the signal to the taxi driver, and the man drew up the car at the curb in front of a dark building. In fact, the whole block was but dimly lighted, and as Mr. Drake assisted Lillian and me out of the taxicab the whole atmosphere of the locality seemed reeking with mystery and fit setting for any sort of melodrama.

"Wait here for us," Mr. Drake directed the driver. "We may be fifteen minutes, we may be a great deal longer, but I want to find you right here when we get back. No scouting around the corner for you."

"All right, boss," the man rejoined good-naturedly, but I wondered if he did not inwardly resent Mr. Drake's rather cavalier manner.

My irritation at Mr. Drake's air was fast becoming an obsession, one which troubled me guiltily, for I could not forget that his very presence with us meant that he had expended valuable time and skill in my service, was continuing to give both. I suppose the nervous tension under which I was laboring was partly responsible for my captiousness, but the fact remained that I was rapidly reaching a point where I feared I might openly betray my feelings.

"This way!" Mr. Drake put a guiding hand on Lillian's arm, another on mine, and we walked in silence down the street to the corner.

INTO THE HOUSE

As we reached it Mr. Drake turned abruptly toward a jutting doorway of a deserted office building, where I saw two men standing, the one farthest away from us, a furtive, slinking figure, whom I instinctively would have feared if I had met him alone.

The other man, whose type I had seen frequently when I was assisting Lillian in the secret service work, stepped out into the street as Mr. Drake turned toward him.

"All right, Watkins?" Mr. Drake asked in a low tone.

"Everything O. K., sir," the man replied.

"Good! Wait here for five minutes, then come to No. 237, the apartment building halfway down the block. The entrance door will be unlocked, and you walk up the stairs—don't take the elevator—until you reach the third floor. There is a corner there, where the stairway turns, that you can't miss seeing. Stand there—you'll be practically safe from observation—until you hear me speak your name. Then bring your lad up. If anybody questions you, flash your police card or give 'em any stall you can get away with."

"I'll manage." The man's voice was full of quiet self-confidence.

"All right then. So long," Mr. Drake returned, and we turned the corner and walked to the door of the tall apartment building which bore the number 237.

It was rather a forbidding looking place, but its interior had an attempt at ornateness, and there was the usual combination elevator boy and telephone operator sprawled at his ease before a switchboard.

He sprang up with alacrity, however, when he caught sight of Mr. Drake. From his manner I deduced that the two had seen each other before.

"Take us up to the third floor directly," Mr. Drake commanded. "And remember what I told you about that entrance door."

HUMOR PATHOS ROMANCE

An O. HENRY Story a Day

The Foreign Policy of Company 99

Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.

Mike bestowed upon him a kick hearty enough to convey the entire animus of Co. 99.

John Byrnes, hose-cart driver of Engine Company No. 99, was afflicted with what his comrades called Japanitis.

Byrnes had a war map spread permanently upon a table in the second story of the engine-house and he could explain to you at any hour of the day or night the exact positions, conditions and intentions of both the Russian and Japanese armies. He had little clusters of pins stuck in the map which represented the opposing forces, and these he moved about from day to day in conformity with the war news in the daily papers.

Wherever the Japs won a victory John Byrnes would shift his pins, and then he would execute a war dance of delight, and the other firemen would hear him yell: "Go it, you blamed little, sawed-off, huckleberry-eyed, monkey-faced hot tamales—give 'em another of them Jalu loo-doos, and you'll eat rice in St. Petersburg. Talk about your Russians—say, wouldn't they give you a painsky when it comes to a scrapovitch?"

Not even on the fair Island of Nippon was there a more enthusiastic champion of the Mikado's men. Supporters of the Russian cause did well to keep clear of Engine-House No. 99.

Sometimes all thoughts of the Japs left John Byrnes' head. That was when the alarm of fire had sounded and he was strapped in his driver's seat on the swaying cart, guiding Erebus and Joe, the finest team in the whole department—according to the crew of 99.

Of all the codes adopted by man for regulating his actions toward his fellow-mortals, the greatest are these—the code of King Arthur's Knights of the Round Table, the Constitution of the United States and the unwritten rules of the New York fire department. The Round Table methods are no longer practicable since the invention of street cars and breach-of-promise suits, and our Constitution is being found more and more unconstitutional every day, so the code of our firemen must be considered in the lead, with the Golden Rule and Jeffries' new punch trying for a place and show.

One of the transatlantic liners dumped out at Ellis Island a lump of protozoa which was expected to evolve into an American citizen. A steward kicked him down the gang-way, a doctor pounced upon his eyes like a raven, seeking for trachoma or ophthalmia; he was hustled ashore and ejected into the city in the name of Liberty—perhaps theoretically, thus inoculating against kingocracy with a drop of its own virus. This hypodermic injection of Europeanism wandered happily into the veins of the city with the broad grin of a pleased child. It was not burdened with baggage, cares or ambitions. Its body was lithely built and clothed in a sort of foreign fustian; its face was brightly vacant, with a small, flat nose, and was mostly covered by a thick, ragged, curling beard like the coat of a spaniel. In the pocket of the imported Thing were a few c o i n s—danerii—scudi—kopecks—pfennigs—pilasters—whatever the financial nomenclature of his unknown country may have been.

Prattling to himself, always broadly grinning, pleased by the roar and movement of the barbarous city into which the steamship cut-rates had shunted him, the alien strayed away from the sea, which he hated, as far as the district covered by Engine Company No. 99. Light as a cork, he was kept bobbing along by the human tide, the crudest atom in all the silt of the stream that emptied into the reservoir of Liberty.

While crossing Third avenue he slowed his steps, enchanted by the thunder of the elevated trains above him and the soothing crash of the wheels on the cobbles. And then there was a new, delightful chord in the uproar—the musical clanging of a gong and a great shining juggernaut belching fire and smoke, that people were hurrying to see.

This beautiful thing, entrancing to the eye, dashed past, and the protoplasmic immigrant stepped into the wake of it with broad, enraptured, uncomprehending grin. And so stepping, stepped into the path of No. 99's flying hose-cart, with John Byrnes gripping, with arms of steel, the reins over the plunging backs of Erebus and Joe.

The unwritten constitutional code of the fireman has no exceptions or amendments. It is a simple thing—as simple as the rule of three. There was the heedless unit in the right of way; there was the hose-cart and the iron pillar of the elevated railroad.

John Byrnes swung all his weight and muscle on the left rein. The team and cart swerved that way and crashed like a torpedo into the pillar. The men on the cart went flying like skittles. The driver's strap burst, the pillar rang with the shock, and John Byrnes fell on the car track with a broken shoulder twenty feet away, while Erebus—beautiful, raven-black, best-loved Erebus—lay whickering in his harness with a broken leg.

In consideration for the feelings of Engine Company No. 99 the details of be lightly touched. The company does not like to be reminded of that day. There was a great crowd, and hurry calls were sent in; and while the ambulance gong was clearing the way the men of No. 99 heard the cracks of the S. P. C. A. agent's pistol, and turned their heads away, not daring to look toward Erebus again.

When the firemen got back to the engine-house they found that one of them was dragging by the collar the cause of their desolation, and grief. They set it in the middle of the floor and gathered grimly about it. Through its whiskers the calamitous object chattered effervescently and waved its hands.

"Sounds like a seidlitz powder," said Mike Dowling, disgustedly, "and it makes me sicker than one. Call that a man!—that hoss was worth a steamer full of such two-legged animals. It's a immigrant—that's what it is."

"Look at the doctor's chalk mark on its coat," said Reilly, the desk man. "It's just landed. It must be a kind of a Dago or a Hun or one of them Finns, I guess. That's the kind of truck that Europe unloads onto us."

"Think of a thing like that getting in the way and laying John up in hospital and spoiling the best fire team in the city," groaned another fireman. "It ought to be taken down to the dock and drowned."

"Somebody go around and get Sloviski," suggested the engine driver, "and let's see what nation is responsible for this conglomeration of hair and head noises."

Sloviski kept a delicatessen store around the corner on Third avenue, and was reputed to be a linguist.

One of the men fetched him—a fat cringing man, with a discursive eye and the odors of many kinds of meats upon him.

"Take a whirl at this importation with your jawbreakers, Sloviski," requested Mike Dowling. "We can't quite figure out whether he's from the Hackensack bottoms or Hong Kong-on-the-Ganges."

Sloviski addressed the stranger in several dialects, that ranged in rhythm and cadence from the sounds produced by a tonsilitis gargle to the opening of a can of tomatoes with a pair of scissors. The immigrant replied in accents resembling the uncorking of a bottle of ginger ale.

"I have you his name," reported Sloviski. "You shall not pronounce it. Writing of it on paper is better." They gave him paper, and he wrote, "Demetre Svangvsk."

"Looks like short hand," said the desk man.

"He speaks some language," continued the interpreter, wiping his forehead "of Austria and mixed with a little Turkish. And, den, he have some Magyar words and a Polish or two, and many like the Roumanian, but not without talk of one tribe in Bessarabia. I do not him quite understand."

"Would you call him a Dago or a Polocker, or what?" asked Mike, frowning at the polyglot description.

"He is a"—answered Sloviski—"he is a—I dink he come from—I dink he is a fool," he concluded, impatient at his linguistic failure, "and if you pleases I will go back at mine delicatessen."

"Whatever he is, he's a bird," said Mike Dowling; "and you want to watch him fly."

Taking by the wing the alien fowl that had fluttered into the nest of Liberty, Mike led him to the door of the engine-house and bestowed upon him a kick hearty enough to convey the entire animus of Company 99. Demetre Svangesk hustled away down the sidewalk, turning once to show his ineradicable grin to the aggrieved firemen.

In three weeks John Byrnes was back at his post from the hospital. With great gusto he proceeded to bring his war map up to date. "My money on the Japs every time," he declared. "Why, look at them Russians—they're nothing but wolves. Wipe 'em out, I say—and the little old jiu jitsu gang are just the cherry blossoms to do the trick, and don't you forget it!"

The second day after Byrne's reappearance came Demetre Svangvsk, the unidentified, to the engine-house, with a broader grin than ever. He managed to convey the idea that he wished to congratulate the hose-cart driver on his recovery and to apologize for having caused the accident. This he accomplished by so many extravagant gestures and explosive noises that the company was diverted for half an hour. Then they kicked him out again, and on the next day he came back grinning. How or where he lived no one knew. And then John Byrnes' nine-year-old son, Chris, who brought him convalescent delicacies from home to eat, took a fancy to Svangvsk, and they allowed him to loaf about the door of the engine-house occasionally.

One afternoon the big drab automobile of the Deputy Fire Commissioner buzzed up to the door of No. 99 and the deputy stepped inside for an informal inspection. The men kicked Svangvsk out a little harder than usual and proudly escorted the deputy around 99, in which everything shone like my lady's mirror.

The deputy respected the sorrow of the company concerning the loss of Erebus, and he had come to promise it another mate for Joe that would do him credit. So they let Joe out of his stall and showed the deputy how deserving he was of the finest mate that could be found in horsedom.

While they were circling around Joe confabbing, Chris climbed into the deputy's auto and threw the power full on. The men heard a monster puffing and a shriek from the lad, and sprang out too late. The big auto shot away, luckily taking a straight course down the street. The boy knew nothing of its machinery; he sat clutching the cushions and howling. With the power on nothing could have stopped that auto except a brick house, and there was nothing for Chris to gain by such a stoppage.

Demetre Svangvsk was just coming in again with a grin for another kick when Chris played his merry little prank. While the other sprang for the door Demetre sprang for Joe. He glided upon the horse's bare back like a snake and shouted something at him like the crack of a dozen whips. One of the firemen afterward swore that Joe answered him back in the same language. Ten seconds after the auto started the big horse was eating up the asphalt behind it like a strip of macaroni.

Some people two blocks and a half away saw the rescue. They said that the auto was nothing but a drab noise with a black speck in the middle of it for Chris, when a big bay horse with a lizard lying on its back cantered up alongside of it, and the lizard reached over and picked the black speck out of the noise.

Only fifteen minutes after Svangvsk's last kicking at the hands—or rather the feet—of Engine Company No. 99 he rode Joe back through the door with the boy safe, but acutely conscious of the licking he was going to receive.

Svangvsk slipped to the floor, leaned his head against Joe's and made a noise like a clucking hen. Joe nodded and whistled loudly through his nostrils, putting to shame the knowledge of Sloviski, of the delicatessen.

John Byrnes walked up to Svangvsk, who grinned, expecting to be kicked. Byrnes gripped the outlander so strongly by the hand that Demetre grinned anyhow, conceiving it to be a new form of punishment.

"The heathen rides like a Cossack," remarked a fireman who had seen a Wild West show—"they're the greatest riders in the world."

The word seemed to electrify Svangvsk. He grinned wider than ever.

"Yas—yas—me Cossack," he spluttered, striking his chest.

"Cossack!" repeated John Byrnes, thoughtfull, "ain't that a kind of Russian?"

"They're one of the Russian tribes, sure," said the desk man, who read books between fire alarms.

Just then Alderman Foley, who was on his way home and did not know of the runaway, stopped at the door of the engine-house and called to Byrnes:

"Hello there, Jimmy, me boy—how's the war coming along? Japs still got the bear on the trot, have they?"

"Oh, I don't know," said John Byrnes, argumentatively, "them Japs haven't got any walkover. You wait till Kurupatkin gets a good whack at 'em and they won't be knee-high to a puddle-ducksky."

GAIN WEIGHT AND STRENGTH

With Bitro-Phosphate on $300 Guarantee

NEW YORK. If you are feeling run-down, weak, nervous, tired-in-the-morning, and generally ailing, these are the symptoms that should warn you to take care of your health.

Four persons in every ten are needing more phosphorus in their bodies. When you see thin and fretful people; or those who are anaemic, pale, frail, oft despondent or lacking in energy, you may look for the need of certain elements that make for a strong constitution.

Some people, after relying upon preparations composed chiefly of salts, quinine, drastic drugs, iron, calomel, cod liver oil, etc., wonder why they find no benefit. That is easily explained by the fact that such persons need the phosphoric element, which is a most potent essential to health, and contained in BITRO-PHOSPHATE, the famous health preparation. Now obtainable everywhere.

The right thing for you to do is make a trial of BITRO-PHOSPHATE beginning at once. It is not a patent medicine; the formula is prescribed by many physicians for the ailments and weaknesses mentioned above.

With every box of BITRO-PHOSPHATE are a few simple health rules and a $300 guarantee. Buy a box of BITRO-PHOSPHATE. It is sold and recommended by all good druggists everywhere. Adv.

Many Women Candidates in Today's Fight

By EDNA B. KINARD

The official presidential primary election ballot which was submitted to the voters of California today carried the names of twenty-six women, a full twenty-five per cent of all the candidates seeking a place in the national conventions. The roster of the feminine candidates, many of whom will go down to defeat by the success of the few, reads like a page from California's blue book of clubdom. Schooled to non-partisan politics, the leaders have broken loose in their own persons to throw themselves into the midst of as interesting a contest as history has yet offered. The five women who have thrown their hats in the Johnson camp are Mrs. James B. Hume, former president of the California Federation of Women's Clubs and former president of Ebell; Mrs. Katherine [illegible] industrial and Welfare Commission of California and prominently identified with the Woman's National Party of which Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt is leader, Mrs. Bradford Woodbridge, former district president, C. F. W. C.; Mrs. M. C. Zumwalt, and Mrs. Charles J. McClatchy.

Hoover adherents have claimed the largest band of feminine representatives, ten of the twenty-six candidates being women. Heading the lists are Mrs. Robert Burdette, first president, C. F. W. C.; Mrs. Mary C. Gibson, department chairman, General Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. Herbert A. Cable, former president, C. F. W. C.; Mrs. Duncan McDuffie, former president National League for Women's Service, California branch; Mrs. Frederick Robson, secretary, C. F. W. C.; Dr. Adelaide Brown, club leader in child welfare program; Mrs. Minnie McLaughlin Walker, Mrs. Josephine D. Sheehan, Mrs. Agnes Emmons Howe, Miss Alice Lee.

Of the eight candidates on the Democratic ticket Mrs. Nellie G. Donohoe and Mrs. Edgar L. Ormsby, both prominent club women, are the lone representatives. Others are Miss Mary E. Foy, Miss Mollie Carpenter, Miss Sarah Hagan, Miss Minnie R. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Frances T. Parker, Mrs. V. S. Campbell. Mrs. Susan E. Cline, Miss Ada E. Ferris, Miss Marie C. Brehm are the women whom the Prohibition party present.

MANY ARE EXPECTED AT SPEECH-ARTS CONVENTION

The annual convention of the Speech-Arts Association of California will take place on Saturday at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco with several score of the clever men and women who are giving their interest to interpretative work in attendance. Mrs. Oscar M. Bennett of Berkeley is president. The business meeting is scheduled for 10 a. m. A teachers' and readers' conference and round table will be led by Lee Emerson Bassett of Stanford University, at 10.30 a. m. Those who will participate are Mrs. Florence Eva, Miss Hilda Heide, Mrs. Kate Reinstein, Miss Jean MacMillan, Miss Ruby Lamb, Miss Anna Hagerty, Miss Edith Reid, Mrs. Helen Howard, Mrs. George Haight. The annual luncheon will conclude the opening session.

"Creative Expression Through Imagination," is the subject for the afternoon address which will be delivered by Wilda Wilson Church of Berkeley. Production of a one-act comedy by Miss Ida May Bradley and a scene from Bulwer Lytton's "Richelieu" by Miss Ethel Cotton will precede adjournment.

SNELL RED CROSS

The annual breakfast of the Snell Alumnae Red Cross Auxiliary will be one of the interesting events of Saturday, May 15. 'THE GEISHA' IS YE LIBERTY HIT

Hana Shimozumi came into her own at Ye Liberty playhouse last evening when a delighted audience saw her to splendid advantage in the leading role of O Mimosa San in "The Geisha." Miss Shimozumi's debut with the Gallo English Opera company in Oakland took place two weeks ago as Yum Yum in "The Mikado."

The opening of "The Geisha" was auspicious in that the opening night was the occasion for the grand benefit of the committee in charge of the Relief for Serbia and Northern France. The house was filled to overflowing and each of the artists appearing in "The Geisha" met with success. The reception given Miss Shimozumi and that veteran comedian Jefferson De Angelis was warm.

The fine chorus and orchestra under the direction of Max Bendix again scored.

"The Geisha" remains at Ye Liberty for the entire week with matinees tomorrow and Saturday and will be followed next week by "The Pirates of Penzance" on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and "H. M. S. Pinafore" on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Chinese Basket Ball Teams Play Finals

The final championship game of the season between the Bay Cities Chinese basketball teams, Waku and Kgoongdye, was played Sunday afternoon on the Lincoln school court. The score was Waku, 35 and Kgoongdye, 13. Much enthusiasm was shown by supporters of both teams, a large crowd, principally Chinese, being in attendance. "Fight 'em, fight 'em!" was the cry in English, while there were some yells in Chinese which out-classed any and all tongue-twisters which have yet been invented by high school classes.

The Waku team consisted of the following players: Center, J. Lee; forward, J. Won and A. Chin; guard, J. Won and H. Wong; substitutes, H. Chan and J. F. Chin. The Kgoongdye team consisted of P. Lee, center; J. Lee and C. Jee, forwards; J. Lee and H. Lim, guards; substitute, A. Lim.

"Doctor" Jailed on Louisiana Charges

"Dr." Will I. Work, who has been a guest at the Hotel Oakland and who has made the acquaintance of many well known local people, is in jail in San Francisco and the police say he has admitted he is not a doctor and that he is wanted in Port Allen, Pa., on a charge of misappropriating checks to the amount of $678.

Work, who posed as a wealthy physician of the east, got into trouble when he called upon the daughter of Mrs. W. B. Brown, 386 Euclid avenue, who is ill and then asked William H. Craig, son of Mrs. Brown, to cash a $100 check. Craig became suspicious and when Work met him in San Francisco to get the money he called the police. He had made the acquaintance of Mrs. Brown while on a train coming west and had said he would pay a professional call upon her ailing daughter.

COURT ASKED TO SET ASIDE DEED

Charges that David J. Clark and John T. Wentz, Oakland attorneys and partners, by pretending to the late Paul Ballitz, who was virtually blind, that he was signing deeds of gift of certain property to his wife, obtained his signature to deeds of trust securing a promissory note for $4000, are contained in a suit by the widow, Mrs. Mary Ballitz, against Clark, Wentz and their wives, Melita R. Clark and Mary Joseph Wentz, to have the trust deeds declared null and void. An injunction restraining the defendants from selling the property or from proceeding otherwise under the trust deeds also is asked.

"The matter was perfectly proper and regular," says Clark.

The property involved consists of a lot near Twenty-third and Lawrence streets and another near Merrimac and Grove streets, besides a quarter-section of land in Sacramento county. The complaint declares it is worth $7000.

Ballitz died December 22, 1919. Mrs. Ballitz says her husband told her his property was free from incumberance and that she knew nothing of this transaction until told by a friend in February.

It reached your eyes-- Did it reach your HEART!

You've seen the interchurch advertising. In newspapers. In magazines.

You know that thirty great denominations are co-operating in a world plan to make each church and each denomination render bigger, broader service for all mankind. You know something of the needs that must be met—.

—More and better hospitals—more and better christian schools—more doctors abroad—more teachers abroad—a living wage for ministers—Americanization—meeting the rural problem—an expanding program in our American cities—an adequate program of evangelism for the whole—to make the Spirit of Jesus dominant in our national and world problem and program. EVANGELISM.

You've read of this—it reached your eyes, but has it reached your heart?

Millions of members of our churches have already responded. Generously! The response is growing every day, every hour. But hundreds of thousands who are not connected with the churches, but are friendly to the evangelistic and philanthropic program of the churches, have not been reached—hence, this direct EVANGELISTIC AND PHILANTHROPIC Appeal.

If you have not been asked to give your share to this, God's work for mankind, give now and give from your heart.

NOW!

Give now. Don't wait longer for a canvasser to call. You need send no payment now—your promise will be sufficient.

Please fill out the pledge below. Give the maximum amount according to your ability to give, or as you have been prospered—this has meant thus far amounts ranging from many hundreds of thousands per month down to $50.00 a month, $25.00 a month, $5.00 a month, $1.00 a month—even the smallest amount will help carry on the great work of the KINGDOM of God just that much farther. Write your address plainly and mail the pledge below today.

ALLIES TO TAKE UP REPARATIONS

PARIS, May 4—Premier Millerand is going to London next week to confer with David Lloyd George, British prime minister, regarding financial questions. It is expected an agreement will be reached with regard to execution of the reparation clauses of the treaty of Versailles.

The premiers will also agree on the basis of the discussions to be held with the German representatives at the Spa meeting on May 25.

What practically amounts to a modification of the reparations clause will be discussed in the form of proposed minimum and maximum totals of reparations.

The French probably will not accept a lower minimum than $25,000,000,000 gold, but are likely to consent to fixing the maximum reparation payable by Germany at $37,500,000,000, which was the limit the American experts reported they found Germany able to pay.

The minimum sum may be developed into annuities of $750,000,000, as discussed as San Remo.

Driver Is Drowned; Hurled From Truck

YAKIMA, Wash., May 4.—M. M. Newton of Selah was reported by his wife to be missing, and a 2½-ton truck which he was driving was found with its front wheels in the Yakima river at the foot of a steep bank over which it had plunged. Friends of Newton believe the truck struck a boulder in the road and he fell into the river and was drowned.

Slayer of Morgan's Physician in Asylum

AMBASSADOR RECEIVED.

ROME, May 4.—Queen Helena yesterday received Robert Underwood Johnson, the American ambassador, and Mrs. Johnson.

SENIORITY RIGHTS DENIED RAIL MEN

CHICAGO, May 4.—The switchmen's strike is still in force because of the refusal of the railroad managers to accept the offer of John Grunau, the strikers' leader, that the men would return to work if their seniority rights were restored. William Nelson Pelouze, president of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association, interceded for a settlement, because of a shortage in raw materials reported by plants.

About 120 of the 1200 union iron molders in Chicago were on strike today for $10 a day minimum wage. Ninety per cent accepted a $2 a day increase to the $6.40 basic wage for eight hours.

Employers today informed 4000 striking carpenters in wood working mills that unless they return to work tomorrow offers of settlement would be withdrawn.

Striking waiters and cooks used picketing, "sandwich men" today to inform people which restaurants were "unfair to labor."

CLEVELAND, O., May 4.—Union motormen and conductors employed by the Cleveland Railway Company, at mass meetings last night and early today, rejected the company's maximum offer of 75 cents an hour, a nincrease of 15 cents, with a minimum 8-hour day and voted overwhelmingly to strike at midnight tomorrow.

Shanghai to Combat Traffic in Narcotic

SHANGHAI, May 4.—Disclosures in a report recently compiled by Dr. Wu Lien Teh of the Anti-Opium society, have led that body to undertake a systematized effort to check importation of narcotics into Shanghai. Dr. Wu says importation of morphia into Shanghai has increased in the last five years from fourteen to twenty-eight tons annually.

By reason of increased production of opium from new poppy fields in Szechuen and Fukien, he says that the price of the drug has fallen to $3 an ounce.

KING WANTS CABINET.

SASKATOON, Sask., May 4.—R. C. Hamilton, mechanic, was killed and Lieutenant Harry Lobb was seriously injured here last night when an airplane in which they were flying crashed to earth from a height of 1500 feet. Lobb started a spin, out of which the plane was never righted.

Naval uniforms were not worn prior to 1748.

Service—A real aid not an empty word

Service, like beauty, must be more than "skin deep" to be worthy of the name. The Baker-Vawter idea of service is to first help the business man find how he can better his clerical methods: then to provide him the equipment to do it with; and, finally, to see that it continues to do it. STILLS MULTIPLY, HOUSE IS TOLD

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Prohibition enforcement will cost $88,000,000 annually, Representative Gallivan Democrat, Massachusetts declared today in the House

"There are more stills now than before prohibition became effective, he said, adding that the bulk of Anti-Saloon League funds are used to hire special agents to locate stills

"There were 2006 stills found in Georgia in 1918," he declared, "1534 in North Carolina and 26 in Nebraska, the home of the first apostle of grape juice.

"During the year when probition was young over 6000 stills were captured by prohibition inspectors and 300,000 gallons of 'moonshine' confiscated."

U. S. FORCE SENT TO HALT ALASKA RED-EYE REVOLT

SEATTLE, May 5—The coast guard cutter Algonquin, with machine guns and seventy-one of a crew ready for the most revolutionary emergency is racing northward today on instructions from Washington, D. C., to put down a supposed "red" revolution at Hyder, Alaska. The reason for the swift cutter's hasty trip to the north is the fact that in a cablegram from Hyler last week one little word of three letters was omitted. The cablegram said, "Red revolution threatened." But according to Casey Williams, captain of the launch Taku, which has just arrived at Ketchikan from Hyder, the cablegram should have read "red eye revolution" He says the nearest approach to a revolution was a number of miners returning from Stewart, B. C., where they had had plenty of red eye to drink.

Grain Growers Urge Rail Appropriation

WASHINGTON, May 4—An additional appropriation of $300,000,000 to aid the railroads in purchasing rolling stock to relieve the present freight car shortage was urged by farmers and mill owners of northwestern states who appeared before the Senate interstate commerce committee. So much grain is tied up on the farms and on elevators that credit of owners is acutely impaired, they said.

Chairman Cummins told the delegation that the $300,000,000 appropriated recently by Congress to cover deficiencies in government operation of railroads would be available for freight car purchases.

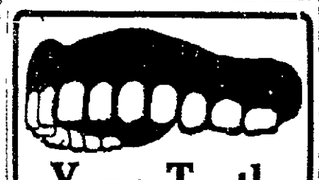

Spouse Woos Another, Wife's Divorce Plea

Making love to another woman in the hall of the Coronado apartments, where they resided, is one of the charges made against Thomas P. Caruso by Mrs May A. Caruso in her suit for divorce on file today

Mrs Caruso also charges her husband with accusing her of being intoxicated when she complained of being ill, of failing to provide for her and the children while he spent his money "in bowling alleys and at other catch-penny hangouts," and with striking and slapping her on numerous occasions. She asks for $125 a month for the support of herself and two children of whom she asks custody.

ONE SICKNESS AFTER ANOTHER

When the blood becomes thin a train of trouble is set in motion. In time almost every organ in the body becomes affected, the nerves are upset, indigestion develops and life becomes miserable because of headaches, dizzy spells, rheumatism, weakness and sometimes rheumatism and neuralgia.

Do not neglect the blood but build it up with the tonic which Mrs. Charles Burwell, of No. 302 Lyon street, Flint, Mich., used and now recommends. She says:

"My blood became so weak and thin that I was on the verge of a breakdown. I had lost a great deal of strength and was very pale. My hands sometimes became numb. It was a great effort for me to move about. I suffered from headaches and dizzy spells. In spite of the medicines I took I grew worse and one sickness followed another. I worried a great deal and became melancholy.

"I have heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills ever since I was a little girl and when I saw them advertised finally decided to try them. Two weeks after I began taking the pills I felt so much better that I knew that I had at last found the right remedy. Gradually my strength returned. My appetite improved, the headaches became less frequent and then disappeared. My color is good now for my blood is rich and plentiful and I feel better than I have in a long time. I am sure that others who need a tonic will be benefited if they will try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 60 cents per box, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. If you are interested write today for the free book, "Building Up the Blood."—Advertisement.

Simple Way to End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.—Advertisement.

2 'MOTHERS' FOR BABY COMMENDED

By MILDRED MORRIS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 4.—The "co-operative mothering" of the Spiker baby by Mrs. Perley Spiker and Mrs. Guy Spiker, her husband's "war sweetheart," was commended today by Dr. T. A. Williams, neurological adviser to the Red Cross in France during the war and famous in medical circles. He described it as a "sensible agreement by two normal women. It should work out well," he said. "I do not know whether Mrs. Guy Spiker is still in love with the man now her brother-in-law. She was when her baby came. Mrs. Perley Spiker is in love with her husband. It is natural that the two women, both being normal, should love his child and be willing to share its care.

"Jealousy natural in women! That's a fallacy if there ever was one.

"It's because people have this mistaken idea that they look upon friendship of the Spiker woman as amazing. If what I have read of the case is true, the wife planned to take the girl and the baby into her home. That would have been a perfectly sensible arrangement. They think it impossible for two women to live in the same house as the man they love, share his affection and continue on friendly terms. Two normal women could do it. Stupid people, I suppose, would call it indecent. Stupid people believe all normal desires and normal actions indecent.

"If jealousy is normal in women, how do you account for the act that women in the days of the clans contentedly shared the affection of one man and the care of his children. If this was still the custom, women would be happy in the arrangement."

Dr. Williams declared "some modification of the clan system was needed to solve the tragic problem of the unmarried woman unable to live a normal life because of economic conditions."

"No, I don't mean polygamy as the Mormons practiced it. I know it is possible for one man to love two women, sincerely loving each for different qualities. Some day society will be advanced enough to accept a situation like this with understanding and think it nothing strange if two women and the man they love live in the same house, forming a happy domestic trinity."

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

MARTINEZ, May 4. — The Contra Costa Sunday School Association will hold its twenty-second annual convention here Friday and Saturday in the Congregational church.

Fannie Hurst, Writer, Admits She's Been Wife Five Years

NEW YORK, May 4.—Fannie Hurst, the writer, announces that today is the fifth anniversary of her wedding.

In acknowledging that she is legally Mrs. Jacques S. Danielson, wife of the pianist and composer, she emphasized that in everything except the purely domestic circumstances that are but an incident of her life, and that of her husband, she wishes to be simply Miss Hurst.

The writer gave details of a remarkable marital agreement. She meets her husband only by appointment. They maintain separate studio apartments. They have averaged two breakfasts a week together since the ceremony and by the terms of a premarital understanding, neither is to give an accounting for the time spent apart from the other. Miss Hurst said:

"Our marriage is the result of very definite theories concerning wedlock. We decided to sell into the sea of matrimony in a bark of our own designing. It has not sprung a leak during five years on the high seas. We were married by a justice of the peace, or a magistrate. I forget which, at Lakewood, N. J., on May 5, 1915.

"Five years ago when I met Mr. Danielson in musical circles I found marriage was not for me was suddenly undermined. But my determination that marriage should never lessen my capacity for creative work or pull me down to a sedentary state of fat-mindedness was not undermined."

Miss Hurst said she was born in St. Louis in 1889 and that her husband was born in Petrograd 39 years ago. She added:

"I am anxious to emphasize that our marriage was not the result of a fad, but simply the working out of a problem according to the highly specialized needs of two professional people.

"We decided that invariably being invited to the same social functions might eventually resolve itself into the usual married wrangle of dragging one another to places we did not want to go.

"We decided that in the event of offspring, the child should take the paternal name until reaching the age of discretion, when the choice should lie with him. My husband telephones me for a dinner engagement exactly the same as scores of my other friends. I have the same regard for his plans."

BRAZIL URGES SHIP SALE BE MADE FRANCE

RIO JANEIRO, May 4.—Sale of former German ships, which were seized by Brazil during the war, was urged by President Pesson, in his message to congress today.

Twenty-eight of these steamers were borrowed by France, and the President said France was noncommittal when asked by Brazil if she desired to purchase the ships on the same terms offered by North American firms. He said France suggested that the ship questions be settled by the reparation commission.

Brazil replied, the president said, that the ownership of the steamers was settled by the Versailles treaty and refused to renew its loan to France. At the same time she asked that country to return the ships to Brazilian harbors. No response has as yet been received from Paris.

OAKLAND HOLDS PUBLIC HEALTH PROGRESS MARK

Public health center work has progressed farther in Oakland than in any other city in the United States, according to a report from the recent convention in New Orleans of the convention of the health section of the National Congress of Social Work, submitted to the board of education last evening by Dr. Alvin Powell, director of the Alameda County Public Health Center and head of the health development section of the Oakland public schools.

According to Dr. Powell, the convention developed the fact that the American Red Cross will center most of its energies in the future in public health center work and will send a committee of investigation to this coast to survey work being done along those lines in this section, and chiefly in Alameda county.

TWO VICTIMS OF AIR DIVE BURIED

VALLEJO, May 4.—While the funerals of the two victims of Sunday's airplane tragedy were being held here today a third victim, Joseph Silvera, still lingered between life and death with practically no chance for recovery. The fourth victim, Charles T. Stoffer Jr., the pilot, has rallied somewhat and is declared on the road to recovery.

Charles T. Stoffer Jr was buried this morning from St. Vincent's church, and six-year-old Josephine Silvera was buried this afternoon. The girl's father, it was discovered today, has a fractured skull in addition to other serious injuries.

It is planned to hold an inquest as soon as Pilot Stoffer is sufficiently recovered. Aviators discussing the accident here today blamed the Liberty motor. They say this has a tendency to make planes topheavy and that if shut off in landing, as happened Sunday, has a tendency to turn the plane into a nose-dive, just as occurred.

Is a Bad Back Wearing You Out

ARE you dragging yourself around day in and day out, with a dull, never-ceasing backache? Do you feel tired, discouraged, irritable and without life or ambition for the simplest task? Are you lame in the morning, subject to headaches and dizzy spells, and bothered with sharp, sudden, knife-like pains at every move? Then there's surely something wrong. Probably it's kidney weakness—not hard to overcome if treated promptly, but very dangerous if neglected. Don't wait for some serious kidney trouble to take hold. Get back your health and keep it. For quick relief, get plenty of rest, sleep and exercise and help the weakened kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's have helped thousands of ailing folks. They should help you. Ask Your Neighbor.

These Are Oakland Cases:

Shattuck Avenue

L. E. Pushard, prop. grocery, 1526 Shattuck ave., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have certainly done me good and any time I have a chance to recommend them, I'll do it. I was in a bad shape with my kidneys about nine years ago when living in Boston, Mass. I was all bent over like an old man and my kidneys were so weak that I had no control over their action. I was working in the navy yards at the time and a fellow workman suggested that I try Doan's Kidney Pills. Everything I had tried to relieve myself had failed but Doan's helped me. Three boxes regulated the action of my kidneys and cured me."

Thirty-third Avenue

Mrs. J. L. Rogers, 814 33rd ave., says: "About three years ago my kidneys began to give me a lot of trouble. My back was lame and weak so that I could hardly bend over to wash or lift anything heavy. Any heavy housework would exhaust me and I would get so faint and dizzy that I hardly knew what to do. This trouble affected my eyes and everything seemed to blur and turn black before me. I was all out of sorts, feeling languid and depressed, when a friend told me about Doan's Kidney Pills. I tried them and after using two boxes, all symptoms of this trouble had left me and I now feel well and strong."

Peralta Street

Mrs. John King, 817 Peralta St., says: "I know that Doan's Kidney Pills have merit, as when I used them some ten years ago I was positively assured of their worthiness. I had pains in my back and could hardly straighten up at times. When I would work hard and particularly on wash days, I suffered the most. I could scarcely get up when I would bend over to pick up anything and the pains in my back and kidneys felt as if a knife was cutting me in two. The irregular action of my kidneys added to my annoyance. Beginning with the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, I soon had relief and altogether I used three boxes and can say I was benefited in every way."

NO package of Doan's Kidney Pills is genuine unless it bears the maple-leaf trade-mark and the signature—"Jas. Doan."

Market Street

E. R. Moore, electric welder, 2337 Market street, says: "I was bothered quite a bit with my kidneys. I had a lame and aching back and my kidneys were varied and irregular in action. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and used them as directed. They fixed me up in good shape, strengthening my back and kidneys. I use Doan's occasionally if a cold settles on my kidneys and they are sure to give quick relief."

Cavour Street

W. E. Gillin, 424 Cavour St., says: "I had never had a sign of kidney trouble until several months ago. I bent over and when I went to straighten up, sharp, knife-like pains struck me in my back and almost took my breath away. From then on my kidneys bothered me and lumbago set in and every muscle of my back weakened. Bending and heavy lifting was almost out of the question and I certainly was in bad shape. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me and I got right after the trouble by using them. The cure that less than one box made, has lasted and my kidneys have been in fine shape ever since."

NEW BANKING BUSINESS.

The first corporation to be organized under the Edge amendment to the Federal Reserve Act has been granted a federal charter and according to its announcement will be ready for business in a short time. It is called the First Federal Foreign Banking Association and will have a capital of $2,100,000 composed of 21,000 shares of a par value of $100 each. The stock is all subscribed at $105 per share and none will be offered on the bond and stock markets.

This new concern is an association of banks and trust companies and the share-holding firms will include representatives of New York City, Buffalo, Boston, Springfield, Mass., Bridgeport, Conn., and Philadelphia. The financial interests comprising it are representative of large manufacturing and selling interests whose products enter largely into the export trade.

It is the immediate object of the Edge amendment to the reserve act to aid in financing the sale of American products. The financial condition of Europe, in view of the sore need for American material and manufactures in the rehabilitation of the former belligerent countries, made it highly desirable to devise some means for extending longer term credits to the European buyers. But it is expected that the new law will be serviceable to the country's foreign trade at all times. An amendment to the reserve act passed in 1916 authorized national banks having a capital and surplus of $1,000,000 or more to invest a limited amount in the stock of corporations organized to carry on a banking business in foreign countries and the Edge act provides for the organization of a class of such bonds under the Federal Reserve Act and places them under the supervision of the federal reserve board.

These Edge banks differ from the regular banking institution. While they are allowed to accept deposits in this country it is only as incidental to their foreign business. They are not primarily banks of deposits. Again, instead of obtaining their loaning power from depositors they are to get it from investors, by the sale of their obligations either in the form of long term debentures, acceptances or other paper issued by them. In the actual case of the First Foreign Banking Corporation, the stock has been placed with banks and manufacturing companies in certain localities where the manufacturers are interested in foreign trade and where there is a considerable amount of capital for investment.

Obligations of foreign purchasers will become the basis of the investment paper issued by the corporation, but its own capital will provide an additional margin of safety. Inasmuch as this capital is to be largely furnished by the manufacturers they will be buying their own paper, in a certain sense, when they take the bank's acceptance for their products sent abroad.

Here is an application of the principle of co-operation in the selling and financial factors of international trade. So far the interests directly concerned—that is, the manufacturers, exporters and banks—are furnishing the necessary capital for the extension of credit to the buyers. But in time, it may be expected, the paper issued will find its way to the general public.

SOLID FACTS.

Words of specially forceful application to current conditions are contained in a recent statement by the federal commissioner of labor statistics. They go pretty close to the heart of the price situation:

"The profiteer is being blamed on all hands for the increase in prices. Undoubtedly profiteering of a most reprehensible sort has existed and does exist today, but the profiteer is a result of ever increasing prices rather than a cause thereof. His influence in boosting prices is negligible. If all the profiteers in the world could be apprehended and thrown into jail or lined up and shot it would have no appreciable influence upon prices.

"It has been suggested that the abnormally high prices are psychological in origin and that the prices will fall just as soon as the people can be made to think falling prices, but the larger quantities of currency and the smaller amounts of commodities are physical facts that no psychic legerdemain can overcome."

The main points in the above are, first, that no matter how unconscionable and deserving of punishment the profiteer, the extent of his offenses has had no large effect on the general level of prices, and second, that smaller quantities of commodities with larger demands and larger quantities of currency, are physical conditions which cannot be sidestepped. The remedy is larger production and smaller consumption. This will rob the profiteer of his opportunity and permit the retirement of a significant portion of the paper credits now doing duty as money.

HOPE ALONE NOT ENOUGH.

It is announced that Secretary Payne and other officials of the Interior Department are hopeful that the oil land leasing regulations recently formulated will bring to Alaska the speculative element that followed the gold mining industry and that prosperity will be restored to the territory. There are oil possibilities, it is added, and if some one will only find a gusher there will be another stampede.

The department, it would seem, cannot lose the old idea that Alaska is dependent upon the sensational and psychological methods for development. It does not seem to realize that those conditions which have made the rate of population exodus greater than that of entrance might be corrected and that a steady and healthy gain is more to be desired in the North than are the spasmodic rushes.

Alaska has had its gold and coal rushes. It experienced another when it was announced that railroad opening was to mean unheard of opportunity and now the stage is being set for the oil thriller. It is to be hoped Alaska does find the oil. And it is to be hoped that the administration, in that event, does something to make sure that the United States benefits in the discovery. Oil would help Alaska and the territory would be entitled to government encouragement in opening the fields. It is not, however, looking to the Interior Department for the mere stimulation of a rush of those whose intent is to do no more than make a quick stake and depart.

There are certain habits in connection with Alaska which the Interior Department finds difficult to overcome.

EASY MONEY.

"Rainmaker" Hatfield has closed his books on the season's work at Crows Landing. In the fifty days he was there four inches of rain fell so his emolument, at $500 the inch, is $2000.

The "rainmaker" is quoted as saying that the season was the most difficult he has experienced in twenty years. The skies have proved more stubborn to his means of entreaty and there were many days in which the sun refused to hide or the clouds to give up their content.

Hatfield is said to have released certain chemicals or gases which when they reached the sky were calculated to precipitate the suspended moisture. For his activity in setting out pans of this "chemical" the credulous farmers paid him at a rate of $50 a day. He guaranteed four inches and assumed the risk.

It is not difficult to believe that this was a trying year for Hatfield. For some reason or other his chemicals produced no effect during the early days of his labors save to stimulate an unusual amount of wagering among the farmers and storekeepers near Crows Landing. Then, at a time when by a peculiar coincidence the rest of the State was also receiving moisture, the gases developed strength and the rain fell.

There are some men who work for a living and for others the dollars fall from the sky. Mr. Hatfield has the clouds and the farmers of Crows Landing to thank for a most pleasant pecuniary shower.

The insanity of the mob is graphically illustrated by the act of a group of people of Balboa staging an unfriendly demonstration against General Pershing because the government of the United States had decided to purchase certain land at that Panama canal terminal on which to erect fortifications deemed necessary for the defense of the canal and the people who live in the republic of Panama. The decision to fortify the Pacific end of the great waterway is in the best interest of the people of that district and will add to their prosperity. And whether the decision is wise or foolish, helpful or harmful, General Pershing was not responsible for it. Nor will the mob demonstration affect the result one way or the other. But it does constitute a serious question as to the trustworthiness of Balboa's intelligence.

The overall thing has further invaded the capitol at Washington by Senator Dial of South Carolina taking it up. He did not stride down the halls of Congress in an ill-fitting suit of denims turned up at the bottom, but appeared on the east portico in a neat tailor-made outfit and was filmed, then making a speech that was rather sensible. "The troubles of today, as I see them are inflation extravagance, false pride and indolence—there are too many automobiles and not enough cornfields and hog ranches; too many $25 hats and not enough Liberty bonds," is one of the sentences in which he expressed himself. These words would have been sober and sensible had he uttered them in regular clothes. However, he doesn't class as a faddist.

Gratifying is the news that Juarez has been occupied by Obregonista rebels. In every conflict between government forces and revolutionaries in Mexico Juarez is among the first places selected for a clash. It is near the important and wealthy American city of El Paso and the Mexicans seem to relish the chance to display their comic opera warfare before a large audience. Now the Juarez show is over, apparently with a minimum of annoyance to the Americans.

NOTES and COMMENT

The explanation by the accused dealer, that large berries have an irrepressible tendency to rise to the top and small ones to nestle at the bottom, was original and ingenious, and might have had weight if it was the custom to violently shake down small fruit; but the fact that the judge imposed a fine of $25 must be accepted as evidence that he was not impressed.

Wonder is excited, if credulity is not strained, by the story of the San Francisco wife who sues for a divorce, admitting that her husband doesn't drink, gamble, go out with other women or abuse her. His shortcoming is that he tells her he does not love her. Here would seem to be a chance for the great reconciler—and in his court, by the way, the suit has been brought. But he is reported to have facetiously observed that the man who does none of these things should be in jail, and would seem to be disqualified.

"Pershing at Balboa" sounds like the heading to an heroic poem, and well it might be. He is reported to have kissed twenty girls as he briefly tarried there on his way through the canal. The initiative in every instance was taken by the party of the second part, which would seem to imply that war is not his only strong suit.

It is stated that the President is in favor of a modified policy as to Germany. It may be that this would be humane, but if his administration would adopt a modified policy toward the persons and corporations responsible for high prices and resultant hard conditions at home he would meet the emergency nearest at hand. The modification should be up, and not down.

At a meeting of the board of trustees the question of diving for coins in Avalon bay was discussed. ANXIOUS MOMENTS

SONORA

The State of Sonora, which is reported to have withdrawn from the Republic of Mexico, is the most American region in Mexico, according to a bulletin of the National Geographic Society.

"Here in Sonora the American ideal has taken particularly deep root," writes Frederick Simpich in a communication to The Society.

"Mexicans from other States call these Sonora natives 'the Yankees of Mexico' because of their thrift, advancement and close relations with the Americans. Practically all families of the merchant and ranching classes send their children to schools in the United States.

"These youngsters, returning to Mexico, are proud of their English—and their Yankee slang. They wear American-made clothes, dance all the popular 'steps,' and display an understanding of American ideals which can only make of them more friendly and helpful commercial neighbors in the years to come.

"Even now the average home in northwest Mexico is largely furnished with American wares—the Yankee sewing machine, the piano, graphophone, kitchen range, brass bed, and baby carriages are everywhere. And from Uncle Sam's factories our Mexican neighbors get most of their ready-made clothing, their shoes, hats, vehicles, farming implements, canned foods, and sporting goods.

"At Nacozari, Sonora, a Yankee mining company has built a free club and social center for its Mexican employees; there are baths, pool tables, a library of Spanish and English books, and current periodicals.

"Strikes have never disturbed this camp. Its American managers are required to learn the language of the country, to study the psychology of the people, and to respect their customs and traditions. When one of this company's native engineers sacrificed his life in an explosion to save many fellow workmen, the company named the town plaza in his honor and built a monument to his memory.

"The change in plant and animal life and industries as you pass from Arizona into Mexico is very slight for the first 200 miles or more. Had they not searched your trunk at the custom-house, and maybe charged you duty on that new camera, you might not have realized that you had crossed a frontier. It is only after you quit the high, rolling grassy ranges of northern Sonora and strike the Yaqui valley below Guaymas that a new world reveals itself. Here the bright, colorful life of the vast coastal plains begins.

"Many of the same forage grasses that cover the great Arizona ranges are also found in Sonora and Sinaloa. The beans of the mesquite tree are likewise very fattening, and it is no uncommon sight to see a Mexican heifer stand on her hind legs and reach for the higher twigs for this succulent bush.

"One odd class of prospectors makes a good living hunting bat caves. In the hill countries of Sinaloa and Sonora the Mexican bat breeds by the thousands, and makes its home in caves among rocky cliffs. Here deposits of guano accumulate, small fortunes being sometimes realized from the sale of one cave's deposits.

"To locate a bat cave these guano-hunters work much as do the backwoods bee tree hunters in Missouri. They seek out a likely cliff, wait till dusk, and watch for bats. Soon, by close observation, they can locate the cave entrance from which the bats emerge. This bat is small, with flat head and broad ears, and gives off a musky odor."

THE DENIM-CRATIC PARTY.

The "overall" movement that is sweeping across the country is more significant than it seems. There is more in it than the spirit of a sartorial prank. It means that at last there is a popular appreciation of the inexorable truth that to cut down the high cost of living we shall have to cut out some of the high living.

There was a time, not so long ago, when the boys of a neighborhood wore trousers that were things of patches, if not of shreds. And they weren't ashamed of them. But the general tide of prosperity swept patched trousers into the discard. The boy whose trousers are of more than one material is now a social pariah. He belongs to the juvenile proletariat whose parents are not able to buy him a new suit when time has abraded the seat of his trousers. But don't blame the boys. This feeling, this class distinction, is a heritage from fathers who formerly walked or rode in street cars, but who now "tour" to and from work, and from mothers who are not satisfied so long as Mrs. Jones next door has a car of more expensive make.

The American people have not been living as they used to. But they are going to live more and more as they used to. The "overall" movement is a picturesque harbinger of the days that are on their way.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

WHERE NAILS ARE HAND-MADE

It seems a pity that Catshill, a pretty Worcestershire village which supplies Birmingham with strawberries and market garden produce, should have revived its nail-making industry. Thirty years ago the villagers were famous at the craft. Then the Belgians flooded the market with cheap machine-made nails. Catshill was "ruined," and has since taken profitably to rural pursuits.

Owing to the present high price of nails, the cottage forges have been relighted and some of the old nailers are making as much as £6 and £8 a week. But they are bound to be frozen out again. Trade is not to be reconstructed with hand-made nails.—London Chronicle.

DIAMOND MODERN GEM.

The perfectly cut and brilliant diamond the world knows today is not more than fifty years old, says a writer in Popular Science Monthly. The ancient world knew little of diamonds. From the first pharaoh to the last, through all the pageantry of thirty-one dynasties, diamonds were unknown in Egypt. From the dawn of history, Babylon remained unfamiliar with them for forty centuries.

The conquest of Alexander across the Indus in 327 B. C. acquainted Greece vaguely with their existence. The patricians of Rome in the days of early empire rarely owned them. Byzantine supremacy, the rise of Venice to maritime power, the Moorish conquest of Spain, brought only a trickle of diamonds into western Europe. A fashionable jewelry store in America today carries more diamonds in stock than were in all Europe when Columbus sailed from Palos.

Henry D. Morse of Boston in the last century was the first to discover the balanced proportions that developed a diamond's highest refractive possibilities. Since brilliancy is the crowning glory of a diamond, he did not hesitate to sacrifice whatever weight was necessary to achieve it. Retaining the fifty-eight factors of the earlier cutters, he found that a diamond is at its sharpest climax of brilliancy when the depth from table to cutlet is six-tenths of its diameter, and a little more than two-thirds below. Cut in this style, a diamond not only flashes light from every polished facet surface, but seems alive with coruscating inner fires.

Morse's proportions are the rule of the world today, and they mark the final triumph of art in the achievement of the perfect modern jewel.

Both Alike.

"I can't imagine what Mildred sees in that Smith boy," remarked Mildred's mother. "He hasn't got brains enough in his head to fill a thimble."

"Oh, well, I dare say your mother said the same thing about me when I came courting you!" replied the girl's father, indulgently.

But he suddenly lost his complacent smile when his wife retorted:

"She certainly did, and I was just as big a fool as Mildred is now. I wouldn't listen to the advice of my elders."—Houston Post.

WOMEN HOLD UP ADVANCE IN MILK

"Use more milk," will be the slogan of the Housewives' Leagues in Alameda county for the coming four weeks. While the Oakland and Berkeley auxiliaries of the California Federation of Housewives' Leagues were gathered in joint executive session yesterday afternoon in their attorney's office and the Oakland State Housewives' League were assembled in the council chambers of the city hall to declare a boycott on proposed 16 cents per quart milk, the officials of the Alameda Milk Dealers' Association were in conference in the Bacon building over the situation involved in the wage increase to milk drivers and probable advance to the consuming public. They hurried their decision to the several groups of women that milk would not be advanced this month; and that a ten per cent increase in consumption would probably operate against its later advance.

The action of the women to boost milk sales was substituted for the boycott. In communications sent to the milk dealers, however, by the California Federation of Housewives, it was declared that no advance in milk prices later would be tolerated.

Sixteen cent bread was boycotted by the Oakland State Housewives' League. The Oakland and Berkeley branches of the California Federation will take immediate action in the matter of the demands of the bakery wagon drivers and increased cost of breadstuffs.

Investigation of a report that a California refinery had closed for a month because of an over stock of sugar is being made today by Mrs. W. T. Cleverdon. Attorney General Palmer has been requested by wire to use the power of his office to eliminate the jobber in sugar.

School Board to Consider Plan to Merge Districts

Annexation of the Emeryville elementary school district to the Oakland High School district will be considered by the Board of Education at a meeting Thursday night, according to Superintendent Hunter.

In the meantime investigation will be made by Hunter and Secretary Lloyd D. Barzee of the fact brought out at the session of supervisors yesterday that Oakland is apparently receiving more money from Emeryville than is required for the education of the few Emeryville students attending the local high schools.

Secretary Barzee has asked for a continuation of the Emeryville annexation proceedings, and according to Superintendent Hunter it will be up to the school board to decide whether or not the case shall be withdrawn.

"We have never insisted on anything but the protection of the taxpayers," was Hunter's statement. "Oakland's taxpayers have always protested that we have been educating outside students at their expense and that those students should be excluded or their own districts made to pay for their training. The only thing the board insists on is protection against loss.

"If it is true that Oakland is suffering no loss, we have no desire to force annexation."

Two Candidates in Race to Be Commander of Veterans

A contest between L. C. Weisbach and Charles Duetreaux, both of San Francisco, for the office of department commander of the United Spanish War Veterans developed this morning at the convention of the veterans in the auditorium.

Weisbach is a member of Victor McKenna camp of San Francisco and is at present senior vice-commander of the district body. Duetreaux is a member of Miles camp of San Francisco. Choice will be made tomorrow.

The other nominations were as follows:

For senior vice-commander, Morgan Galbreth of Los Angeles; now junior vice-commander, John H. Gallagher of Yountville, now department inspector, W. M. Vallandighal of Santa Rosa and W. F. Betzold of San Francisco; for department inspector; T. C. Galbreath, Los Angeles; E. H. Phelps, Santella, and C. F. Roberts, Bakersfield; for department judge advocate, Superior Judge F. J. Cole of Imperial county.

Dr. Ellwood Mead, chairman of the State Land Settlement Board, addressed the veterans at the morning session, explaining in detail the plan of the settlement board for colonizing ex-service men on its farm colonies in Merced county.

Mead also explained the federal land settlement bill now pending in Congress providing for soldier farm development.

Yesterday afternoon the delegates visited Berkeley as guests of the Berkeley camp.

CYCLIST ASKS DAMAGES.

SAYS LANDLORD SHOT AT HIM

Both charges from a shot gun were fired by Charles S. Roberts, 1530 Twenty-third avenue, last night the police say at John Hornwick, a roomer in the former's home. Hornwick was not punctured by any of the birdshot, but he says the blasts aided his speed in hunting a policeman.

Roberts told the police, they say, that he believed Hornwick was paying unwelcome attentions to Mrs. Roberts. The police claim that Roberts rented the weapon and waited for three days till he had a gun sight at Hornwick.

Mrs. Roberts told the police that her husband is subject to nervous breakdowns. The police have asked Hornwick to appear today and swear to a complaint against Roberts.

Power Rate Hearing Delay Is Expected

Further continuance of the hearing before the State Railroad Commission of the application of the Pacific Gas and Electric company for an increase in electricity rates, which is under protest by Oakland and other Central California cities, is expected when the case is called again in San Francisco Thursday, according to City Attorney H. L. Hagan. Additional exhibits will be filed by the company at that time and further postponement is looked for in order to allow time for examination of the additional evidence.

Deputy City Attorney Leon Gray, who is conducting Oakland's case, is also preparing, in co-operation with San Francisco attorneys, the defense of Oakland against the further application of the same company for increased gas rates, which will be heard by the commission next Tuesday. The defense of the municipalities will include an attack on the efficiency of the heat units the company is at present producing.

Federal Agents Arrest Trio And Seize Lot of Narcotics

SAN FRANCISCO, May 4.—Three perosns, one of them a woman, were arrested today and narcotics valued at approximately $5000 were seized by internal revenue agents.

Taken into custody at Market street nad Grant avenue by a squad of internal revenue men headed by C. F. Miller, a man giving the name of Thomas Rantes, alleged dealer, furnished the clew that later led to the arrest of Frank von Thum, manager of the Oliver Hotel, 722 Harrison street, and Miss Alma Rosevahl, who said she was the housekeeper in the establishment, and the seizure of a quantity of heroin, morphine and opium valued at $5000. Rantes, according to the federal operatives, was arrested while in the act of passing a drug to an addict. The addict escaped. Von Thum and Miss Rosevahl were arrested in the hotel. Rantes occupied a room in the hotel but the drugs, according to the officers, were found in von Thum's room.

Federal officers are becoming increasingly vigilant, as the result of recent disclosures indicating that drug peddlers are using boys of immature years to peddle drugs.

COLD WEATHER IS HAMPERING STATE'S FARMS

Unusual cold weather and strong winds have interfered with the state's farming operations during the last week, according to the weather bureau. The winds have depleted the soil moisture in many sections and made the need of more rain apparent. In other places this depletion has made possible spring seeding which has been delayed.

Spring wheat, which was sowed early, is showing a good stand. Garden truck planting, it is reported, has been delayed and the season has been unusually unfavorable for live stock. The cold stormy weather has caused a loss to the herds and flocks where the vitality of the stock was already lowered by shortage of feed.

MAURY SCHICK REPLACES BOHNE AS BEST HITTER IN LEAGUE

FANS LOOKING FORWARD TO ROUGH BATTLE WHEN DENNY AND BARRIEAU MEET TOMORROW

DENNY WILIE OF OAKS IS BEST RUN SCORER; MITZE MAKES CLIMB

Schick Has Failed to Hit in But Four Games; Billy Hamilton in Select Class

By EDDIE MURPHY

Sammy Bohne did not have very much success in hitting against the shoots of the Los Angeles pitchers at Seattle last week and he suffered quite a drop in the Pacific Coast League batting percentage column, while Maury Schick of the Seals was having a lot of fun at the expense of the Portland pitchers and is now leading the league. Schick started his great batting streak against the Oakland pitchers in the second week of the season and kept right on toward the top until he finally got there. Schick is whaling the pill at a .406 clip, and that percentage stands for the games played last Sunday. In only four of the twenty-four games played by the Seals this season has Schick failed to get a hit. Guess that isn't going some for a fellow who was due to get the tinware tied to him a couple of weeks ago.

Besides possessing the best batting average, Schick is the leader in making home runs with four, and is second in run scoring, having crossed the plate 24 times. Denny Wilie of the Oaks is the only one ahead of Schick in scoring. Denny has scored twenty-five times. Schick is tied with Sheely and Crawford for third best in hitting two-baggers. Schick looked every bit of developing into one of the best outfielders in the league when the Seals secured him from the Angels early last season, and for a time this year his best admirers thought that Schick might prove a disappointment. Maury is one of those players who would rather play ball than eat, and it is going to take some mighty high-class pitching to stop the young fellow from keeping up his good average.

Bohne secured but five hits off the Angel pitchers and the result was that he fell far below the .400 mark which he was well over last week. But while Sammy was taking his drop Rod Murphy, another former Oak with Seattle, was taking a climb. He is hitting .337, nine points better than showed last week.

The Oaks have four batters in the .300 class, Mack Miller being the leader with .368, a few points lower than he had last week. Billy Lane is right up with Mack. The surprises in hitting for the Oaks last week against the Sacramento pitchers were Homps Mitze and Billy Hamilton. Both these fellows secured enough hits to bring them from way down in the .200 branch up into the .300 class.

Roy Corhan is whaling the agate for the Seals and he was another to hop into the select class. Roy is now hitting .328, besides being the best sacrificer in the league with 12 taps in front of the plate to his credit.

Justin Fitzgerald shows a better batting average than Maury Schick, but he took part in eight less games than his teammate. Pete Compton of Sacramento is classed as the second best hitter in the league. He added a half dozen points to his average last week. Earl Sheely of Salt Lake took a big drop, but manages to hold third position, with Hack Miller claiming fourth.

Poor old Phil Koerner, the big first sacker of the Seals, must have left all his batting ability on the stage. Phil is not listed with the boys today because he fell far below the .200 mark. But you can count on Phil being up there scaring the pitchers before the Fourth of July.

Billy Kamm and Joe Connolly, two of the young Seals, dropped out of the select circle while batting against the Portland pitchers.

Brick Eldred of Sacramento and Fisher of Vernon were the only regulars to break into the .300 class.

PERCY AND FERDIE—"A Perfect Dear," but Popper Thinks Otherwise

By H. A. MacGILL

Carl Holling Has Won Seven Games for Oaks

While seven other pitchers in the Coast League have yet to be charged with a defeat, there is no question about Carl Holling being the league's best pitcher. Carl has won all of his seven games pitched this season and has been responsible for a fraction over one run per game. Johnny Couch and Sam Lewis of the Seals and Bill Portica of Los Angeles are tied for second honors with four wins and no defeats, or three less wins than Holling.

Russell (Dud) Arlett is the Oaks' second best hurler with five wins and one defeat, but has been responsible for an average of four runs per game. The pitching records follow:

Texdahl All-Stars Defeat Centrals

The Texdahl All-Stars of Berkeley trimmed the Central Bank team of Oakland by a score of 7 to 6. The bankers had the stars outclassed in the early part of the game, but the winners came from behind in the last few innings with timely hits. Their big inning was the eighth when they scored three on but one hit. An error, a walk and a triple by Sullivan did the work. Gallagher hurled for the bankers. The bankers scored three in the eighth on a triple by Millett and singles by O'Connell, Lafferge and Hansen.

Nelson did the pitching for the Stars. This game was not a scheduled one in the Bankers' league. Next Saturday the Centrals will meet the Wells Fargo Nevadas at Bay View in a league game.

OTTO BERG PICKING A TOUGH ONE IN JACK McCLELLAND

Battling Ortega and Joe Ferro Will Provide Third Feature Bout Tomorrow Night

By BOB SHAND.

Mons Francois Barrieau gets quite a kick out of the chatter that Frankie Denny's friends are making regarding the roughness of Mister Denny.

"Denny may be terribly rough for about a minute," said Barrieau yesterday after hammering "Bum" Spiers all around the ring in West Oakland, "but he will be tame the rest of the night. If Frankie wants to slug let him start something and I will bet he won't remember the finish of the first round. I just love to fight these tough guys and I've never met one yet I couldn't beat. Clever boxers have occasionally taken a decision from me, but the wild men are my particular dish."

Denny is still confident he can take the measure of the Canadian, or at least hold him even. Frankie made the rounds of Broadway yesterday afternoon with a bundle of kale which he was willing to wager on himself provided he won if he got a draw. Some wagers were made on these terms, while the general price was ten to eight in favor of Barrieau. Local fans have not forgotten the good fights Frank made here a few years ago and his trainer, Harold Algernon Broom, says Barrieau is even better today than he was when he was boxing the Ritchies and Ortegas and that kind.

Pair of Frankies Are Two of a Kind

They are two of a kind, Barrieau and Denny, and the chances are they will stand in the center of the ring and whale away until one of them topples over for the big count.

Some bird over in Millbrae thinks Joe Ferro has a chance to lick Battling Ortega, but the chances are he owes Joe four hits and wants to stand in right with him. Ferro is a tough man to beat, for he is game and willing, but it is his very willingness that may result in his downfall. The Battler likes the fighting kind, the boys who won't back up without being smacked on the nose, and he has a wonderful assortment of face and body blows reserved for the Pride of Millbrae. Ortega was hog-tied against McClelland last week, and he will still be far when he meets Ferro tomorrow night, but the Mexican boy has the well-known "class" and that always counts in any kind of a fight.

Al White and the gang that used to make their headquarters at the old St. Julien Hotel in Golden Gate, where the fighters used to train and the horsemen swapped tips, will be on the job "special" to see Otto Berg in his come-back. Years ago Otto came down from Astoria and started training at White's place and he conditioned himself for all his battles there. Tommy Butler used to hold the watch for Otto and Bob Armstrong used to be his sparring partner. That gives you an idea how long Otto has been out of the ring.

Otto Berg Will Try a Come-Back

Berg had no intentions of donning the gloves again until Sailor Ed Petroskey made such a good showing against Boy McCormick at Mare Island. Berg and Petroskey were [illegible] Otto figured that if Pete could do a come-back there was no reason why Bobby Berg's father could not do the same thing. So Otto hied himself to a sporting goods house and bought a complete new kit of fighters' tools and went to work. He trained with Mike McTigue when the Hayes was getting into shape for his fight with Petroskey and after a strenuous siege in the gymnasium Otto became convinced that he was as good as ever and a lot better than some of the present crop of middleweights who are pulling down juicy medals every week. But to be on the safe side, Otto is remaining at his job and training after working hours. He is sensible enough not to let boxing interfere with his business.

Berg has been matched with Jack McClelland and is picking on a mighty good man first time out. McClelland gave Tom Morton a fine lacing and made a good fight against Bat Ortega last week. He will outweigh the local boy, but Otto thinks he might as well tackle the tough one now as later.

Jimmy Kirna Lonsdale and Larry Jones will furnish the other feature bout and there will be three good preliminaries.

Rotary Bowling Team Members Will Get Individual Medals

The bowling honors for the Fourth Annual International Bowling Tournament held by the Rotary Clubs of the United States and Canada, went to the Oakland team, whose 2838 total was the best mark of the meet. The team will be presented with a handsome championship trophy, while each of the individuals competing on the winning club will receive a beautiful gold medal. The Elmira, N. Y., team tumbled 2819 pins which netted them second place. Sacramento was next in line with 2795, while the Watertown Rotarians, of New York state, finished fourth, with 2724.

Whitney, of Oakland, will also receive a gold medal, his 336 score being the best high individual game of the meet.

The tournament was held under the auspices of the Winnipeg Rotary Club and was a decided success, sixty-three cities being represented. In fact it was the largest bowling event ever held in the history of the International Association of Rotary Clubs. It was a telegraphic affair, all scores being wired to headquarters and afterwards being confirmed by the score sheets mailed to the Chairman of the Tournament Committee.

Long Games Specialty of Brooklyn Dodgers; New Record Is Set

BOSTON, May 4.—Boston and Brooklyn went into the nineteenth inning yesterday before Boeckel's single scored Sullivan with the run which gave Boston a 2 to 1 victory. Fillingim and Smith pitched all the way and honors were practically even until Smith weakened in the nineteenth.

Today's game, following the twenty-six inning tie between Brooklyn and Boston Saturday, and Brooklyn's thirteen inning game with Philadelphia yesterday, gave Brooklyn the new major league record of fifty-eight innings played in three consecutive games. The previous record was forty-five innings, played by Pittsburg and Brooklyn in 1917.

Italians Take Their Football Seriously

ROME, May 4.—A football match between teams representing the cities of Lucca and Viareggio, played at Viareggio, degenerated into a fight and then a riot. A former army captain, acting as umpire, tried to settle the difference but failed. Carabineers then made efforts to re-establish order. The crowd attacked and disarmed them and they were obliged to flee to their barracks. One mob looted a gunshop, occupied the railway station and barricaded the roads leading into the city to prevent the arrival of reinforcements. Soldiers, however, succeeded in occupying the city and order was finally restored.

NAPA BOXING CARD

VALLEJO, May 4.—Battling George Suddington, the Naval camp welterweight, has been matched by the Napa Athletic Club promoters to battle "Wildcat" Leonard of San Francisco in the main event at Napa Monday evening.

Fans Freeze as Brown Wins Armory Bout

The boys who wore their furs and mackinaws enjoyed the scraps staged at the Armory, San Francisco, last night but the cash customers who were not enclosed in Artic clothing had to be thawed out before they could return to their loving wives and families. The tents that had been erected to keep some of the old ox the outside blew down last week while Bud Ridley's manager was speaking and the show was called off. Then the promoters decided to go ahead with their card but the fans were

Non! Non! Says Paris of English Ruffles

PARIS, May 4.—No gentleman will wear ruffles on his evening shirt in Paris, at least this summer. A smart shop on the Avenue de l'Opera tried to boost the fashion by exhibiting in its windows a lot sent over from England with two wide lace ruffles which overlapped the lapels of the coat. The crowds that gathered about those windows guffawed the thing out of Paris.

THE DISCOVERY OF "VITAMINES"

The study of beriberi and pellagra led to the discovery of a group of food essentials known as "vitamines." They are necessary to normal nutrition and to normal growth. They are found in the whole wheat grain. In making Shredded Wheat Biscuit all the vitamines are retained—all the elements that are needed for building a perfect body. Two of these little loaves of baked whole wheat with milk or cream (or hot water) make a nourishing, satisfying meal for a few cents.

A motor company is being organized in Michigan to manufacture automobiles to weigh less than 500 pounds.

IT WAS THE VERY THING HE NEEDED

"By the help of Tanlac I have gotten complete relief from troubles that have followed me more or less as long as I can remember," said C. S. Ludwick, 462 North Belmont avenue, Los Angeles, Calif., pressman at the R. W. Pridham Co.

"Yes, sir, all my life, as far back as I can remember, I had suffered from stomach trouble. My appetite was never very good. I always had to be extremely careful about what I ate, and even then I nearly always suffered after eating. I never seemed to get the proper amount of nourishment from my food, and for the past two years I had been in a badly run-down, weakened condition. My nerves were badly upset, and I was always so restless at night I could get but little sleep. I felt so tired and wornout all the time I just had to force myself to get around, and when I came from work would be so exhausted I could hardly walk up a little hill between the street car and where I live. I also had rheumatism all over my body, which kept me in pain just about all the time.

"I had tried this, that and the other thing for my troubles, but could never find anything that would do me a particle of good. One day down where I work one of the men told me how fine Tanlac had [illegible] up, saying he had gained twenty pounds in weight after he started taking it. So I decided to try it myself. Well, sir, it proved to be the very thing I needed, for after taking only four bottles I am in better health than I ever was in my life. I have a fine appetite, can eat just anything I want and everything agrees with me perfectly. My nerves are in fine shape, the rheumatism has left me entirely, and I feel so good all the time I can do my work without a particle of trouble.

"My wife, seeing how Tanlac helped me, is now taking it, and it is doing her a world of good.

"I will always have a good word for Tanlac after what it has done for me and is doing for my wife."

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco and Oakland by The Owl Drug Company Stores.—Advertisement.

REGULAR HABITS NOW; CONSTIPATION GONE

Mr. Brooks Suffered for Years—Tells How He Got Relief.

"I have tried a great many things for constipation, but the only thing that has been able to relieve me is Milks Emulsion. I am on only my second bottle and have to take very little of it now. My bowels move regularly every morning, which they have not been doing for a number of years. It seems like living again, after suffering so long. I recommended Milks Emulsion to two of my friends and both say it is the best remedy they ever heard of."—Elmer C. Brooks, 329 Washington St., Peoria, Ill.

Constipation weakens the bowel muscles. Salts and regulatives only increase [illegible]. Milks Emulsion is a real corrective remedy. You can try it under its guaranty, without risking a cent.

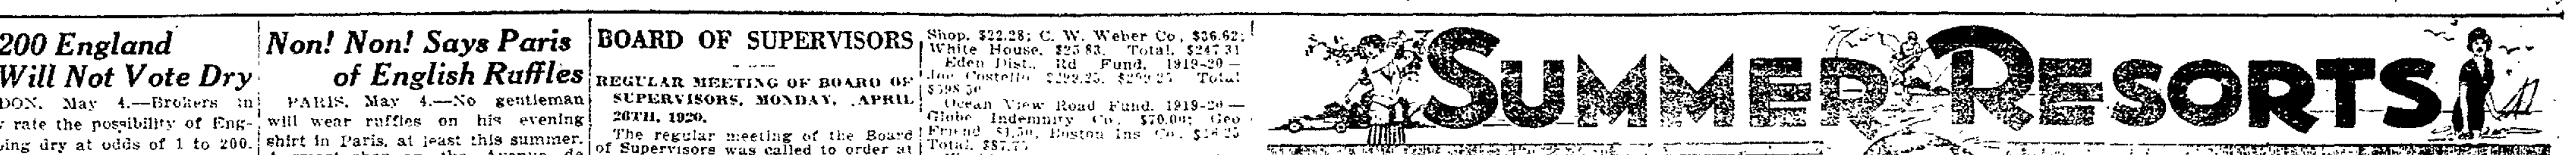

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

INVESTMENTS

THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

is now offering to any citizen of the United States an unequaled opportunity to purchase income producing apartment houses at prices much below the actual construction costs to the Government, and greatly below the cost to construct today. The terms are especially easy, only 10% cash payment down and only 1% of the balance per month, which includes interest on the unpaid balance of 6%. These properties, if well managed, should show a net return on actual money invested by purchaser of at least 25%. This project is one of the most attractive built by the government, and is protected with building restrictions. It is highly improved with all modern city conveniences, such as paving, sewers, water, gas, electricity and ornamental street lighting, which are all paid for and included in the price of the property. Every house has been occupied since it was built. The rent of some of these homes is more than the monthly payment required to purchase. For complete detailed information and inspection of photographs of properties call on J. W. Crossley, representative of the UNITED STATES HOUSING CORPORATION, Ground Floor, No. 375 13th st., Oakland; phone Oakland 4895.

STOCKS COMBAT BEAR SENTIMENT ON WALL STREET

NEW YORK, May 4 — Advances of 1 to 3 points were made by leading shares at the opening of today's stock market, although overnight advices bearing upon industrial conditions were not calculated to inspire bullish confidence. The same issues that featured yesterday's late rally were again conspicuous, notably Replogle and Vanadium steels, Central Leather, Utah Copper, Industrial Alcohol, Reading and the sugars. Baldwin Locomotive and oils were under moderate pressure, the Mexican situation inviting further selling of the latter group. Foreign exchange was firm in the preliminary quotations. The trend of the day's trading follows:

FORENOON—There were numerous additional opening gains but trading was quiet with few signs of public interest. Independent steels, especially those recently mentioned in connection with merger plans, continued to dominate the market. Equipments, motors, shippings and sugars also were materially higher. After a brief setback, rails also strengthened, the investment division gaining 1 to 2 points and minor issues 1 to 3. Oils almost alone remained unresponsive to the better tone of the market. Call money opened at 8 per cent against yesterday's 9 per cent rate. Liberty 3½s and third 4¼s recorded new minimum quotations.

AFTERNOON—General Motors and Crucible Steel were the objects of bearish activity at midday, falling back 4 and 5 points respectively. Other leaders were carried down 1 to 2 points, the market becoming dull on the reaction. Call money continued in free supply at 8 per cent.

Under the impetus of a six per cent, call money rate, speculative steels recorded higher prices later, but shaded towards the end on realizing for profits. The closing was irregular. Sales approximated 900,000 shares.

Final prices of Liberty bonds were: 3½s 89.40; first 4s 84.50; second 4s 84.80; first 4¼s 85.58; second 4¼s 85.04; third 4¼s 89.10; fourth 4¼s 85.82; Victory 3¾s 96.24; Victory 4¾s 96.26.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, May 4 — Decided fresh advances took place today in the price of corn. Bulls made much of the falling off in the visible supply total. Opening prices, which ranged from ¼c decline to ¾c advance, with July $1.68 to $1.68¾ and Sept. $1.60½ to $1.61¼, were followed by quick gains all around.

Later the market temporarily reacted a little owing to reports that the Japanese financial situation continued much strained. The close was nervous, 1 to 2¼c net higher, with July $1.69¾ to $1.70, and September $1.61¾ to $1.62.

All deliveries of oats surpassed previous top figures. Wild bidding for May oats at Winnipeg helped to lift the market here. After opening ¼ to ⅜c higher, including July at 91⅝c to 91¼c, the market continued to ascend. Weakness of hog values had only a transient depressing influence on provisions.

Corn—No. 2 mixed, $1.87@1.89; No. 2 yellow, $1.90. Rye No. 2, $2.17; barley, $1.70@1.87. Timothy seed $10@11.50; clover seed, $25@35.

Close. Corn—May, $1.82⅝; July, $1.69¾; September, $1.61¾. Oats—July, 92⅞c; September, 78c. Pork—May, $34.50; July, $36.50. Lard—May, $19.75; July, $20.70. Ribs—May, $17.45; July, $18.45.

POLICE WORK ON FIREBUG THEORY

That a fire which destroyed a building late last night at Twenty-second and Peralta streets was of incendiary origin is the belief of the police today after an investigation this morning by Inspector William Kyle.

The fire broke out in a building located on the Grondana vegetable garden tract. The building was used as a storehouse for tools and seeds. It was of wood construction and burned fiercely. The flames spread to a water tower near the building, and only the prompt arrival of the fire department saved the tank, which was badly scorched.

Investigation this morning disclosed evidence that a fire-bug had been at work, according to the police. The building was unoccupied and there [illegible]

Woman's Apartment Raided by Burglars

Burglars entered the apartment of Mrs. Lillian G. Winter, 1560 Alice street, last night and after ransacking the rooms, departed with a valuable plush coat and a quantity of other clothing. Mrs. Winter told the police this morning that she was absent from her apartment at the time of the burglary. Inspectors Harry Orbell and John Muthern have been detailed to work on the case.

Appointment of Thomas Ledwich, a former service man and former member of the law firm of Snook and Church, to the deputyship in the office of the city attorney created by the resignation of Earl Warren, who has accepted a deputyship under District Attorney Ezra Decoto, was announced today by City Attorney H. UNITARIANS SPLIT ON WHITNEY CASE

An attempt to introduce a resolution in the biennial conference of the Unitarian churches of the Central Pacific Coast district, in session today at Berkeley, criticising the criminal syndicalism law and defending Miss Anita Whitney, recently convicted thereunder, stirred the conference to immediate debate which at times reached an almost acrimonious pitch. The resolutions were finally tabled by the conference.

They were introduced by Rev. A. B. Heeb of Berkeley, who is superintendent of religious education for the Unitarian churches about the bay. Heeb has been active in the interest of conscientious objectors detained at Alcatraz Island. The opposing argument was led by Dr. E. M. Wilbur, president of the Pacific Unitarian Divinity school. Rev. Heeb declared the criminal syndicalism act unfair.

A plea by Rev. Heeb that the conference recommend a study of the Whitney case and the criminal syndicalism law to the ministers and laymen of the churches, represented and that the conference go on record as questioning the law as it stands threw the conference into a heated discussion. Heeb's motion was seconded by Rev. Paul Pease of Sacramento.

Opposition to the resolution was immediately voiced by President Wilbur, who offered a substitute motion which would remove the name of Anita Whitney from the resolution, declaring that the conference did not deal in personalities.

That the delegates represented at the meeting had no right to voice the opinion of their churches without first consulting them on such an important question was the statement of Rev. Caleb Button of First Unitarian Church of San Francisco, who declared that he was opposed to presenting any such resolution to the conference at this time.

SUBJECT OUT OF ORDER

"I am against all resolutions which are precipitated on any meeting before members of the various churches have had a chance to discuss them and to send instructed delegates," he said.

"This resolution is offered merely to place the conference on record as to whether or not it thinks the law is fair," declared Rev. Heeb, defending the resolution.

A motion from Rev. Clarence Reed of First Unitarian church of Oakland, that the whole discussion be ended and that the resolution be laid on the table, was seconded and unanimously passed.

Mother Yields Money When Robber Threatens Children

Although choked by a burglar and threatened with death, Mrs. Alice Walden of 3062 Madeline street last night refused to tell where her money was hidden, but she readily revealed the hiding place when the thug walked into the bedroom and announced he would kill her three-year-old son and two-year-old nephew unless the money was produced.

Mrs. Walden, whose husband is an Oakland fireman, had just put the children to bed and returned to the kitchen when the burglar entered the room. He demanded money and when she exclaimed, "You can kill me but I won't tell you where the money is," the thug choked her and threw her into the corner of the room, exclaiming, "Well, then, I will work on the kids." To save them she took $50 from under the mattress on the bed.

After obtaining the money the burglar rushed out of the house and Mrs. Walden collapsed. She was later found by friends.

SCHOOL BOARD UPHOLDS VOTE

Discord that developed last week among members of the board of education over an invitation extended to Superintendent Emeritus J. W. McClymonds to sit in an advisory capacity at meetings of the building program and citizens' bond expenditure committee was renewed last evening when the same issue was revived by Director J. Loran Pease in the form of a motion rescinding the vote of a week ago.

Dr. Pease, who last week with Director E. A. Young declared that the invitation to McClymonds was adopted for the purpose of creating discord, asked that the board rescind its action for the sake of harmony. The motion was lost after an exchange of remarks between Dr. Pease and Director Fred A. Campbell, who proposed the invitation last week.

Dr. Pease thereupon offered in succession four additional motions, asking that similar invitations be extended to all former board presidents, all former school superintendents, to the three union labor leaders in the city, and to the heads of the Rotary Club, Lions' Club, Business Development League and Chamber of Commerce.

Each motion as it was put was lost because of the lack of a second, and Dr. Pease was in the act of offering a fifth motion when Director Campbell moved adjournment and the vote was taken and the meeting adjourned during the presentation of motion number five.
